Book Fair at Friends School Here This Week

One thousand books are on display, and for sale, today through Saturday at the Friends School on Laskin Road at the Third Annual Book Fair. Included in the display are books appropriate to every age and interest from beginning readers through teen age readers. Among the hundreds of books you will be certain to find "Just the very one for Daughter Jane, Nephew Dick and the kindergarten next door."

If you are seeking a book for a beginner, perhaps you'll choose one of Dr. Seuss' "I Can Read" books. If your interest is for an elementary child, you can be sure she would enjoy "Shirley Temple's Storybook," "Exploring Chemistry" by Roy A. Gallant could be your choice for the youngster who has a scientific, inquiring mind. "Stars in Her Eyes," by Betty Carvina, may be the book you buy for the high school deb on your list. If you are looking for a tiny book, that a sick child might read in bed, take a look at "A Friend is Someone Who Likes You" by Joan Walsh Anglund.

Friday morning a special pleasure is in store for those who are at the Book Fair. At 11 o'clock in the morning Mrs. Fran Martin, well known and lovely child author and playwright, will speak on "The Books that Children Shouldn't Miss."

Explore with Books," is the theme of 1958's Children's Book Week. Virginia Beach Friends School presents this opportunity from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and tomorrow during the same hours. Saturday, November 8th books may be seen and bought from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Plays Lead

MRS. BERNICE RUMBLE

Busy Navy Wife In New Play

Taking care of three children and the varied activities of a Navy wife might sound like enough responsibility to many women, but not to Bernice Rumble, who finds time to appear in "Visit to a Small Planet," which will be presented Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the Virginia Beach Little Theatre.

Mrs. Rumble will play Ellen Spelling, the feminine juvenile lead. She is from Washington, D.C., and although a stranger to local playgoers, has acted with several Little Theatre and summer theatre groups.

The play is a satire on the complications that result when a visitor from outer space lands his flying saucer on the lawn of a famous news analyst.

Seahawks Play Holland Team Tonight Away

The Virginia Beach High School Seahawks have an encounter with Holland High School at 8 p. m. Thursday. The game will be played in Suffolk.

The Seahawks had scheduled the game with Holland on Friday, but due to changes, the game will be played Thursday night at the Suffolk field against Holland. The Virginia Beach staff were trying to arrange to have the game at the local field here at Virginia Beach.

The Seahawks will be trying to bounce back from a loss to Group One power, Oscar Smith of South Norfolk. The Hawks absorbed a lumping 25-0 loss before a cold but cheerful crowd last Friday evening.

Two Virginia Beach drives were stalled by penalties, one of which went to the one-yard line and the other inside the ten. The Hawks came close in the second quarter when on fourth downs and 14 yards to go for a first down, halfback Norman Broom carried for 31 yards, but the drive was later to die with a penalty settling the Seahawks back. The drive which went to the crowded line of the Tigers was stopped, when on fourth downs and one to go for a touchdown, fullback "Skip" Jones passed over the head of end Jimmy Walcott.

The loss marks the first time this year that Virginia Beach has been held scoreless. It also gave the Seahawks a scoring average of 18.3 while opponents upped theirs to 11 points per game. The Virginia Beach defense was loose at the Center. Smith went on to catch in on two TD's.

The Seahawks defense then held the strong Oscar Smith eleven during the second and third quarters while fumbles and penalties were stopping their own drives. The Tigers snapped 220 yards on the ground while holding the Seahawks to 18 yards.

The Seahawks are Group II, District One leaders along with York and Prince George. York has a 5-0 record in Group II play, after a 2-7 victory over Northampton. Prince George played a non-conference with Middleham, so their record in conference play remains at 5-0. The Seahawks have two games remaining, both being Group II battles. The Virginia Beach record still stands at 5-0 and when they do battle with Holland the title will be at stake.

The Seahawks play Windsor next week at Windsor, closing out the season.

The boys who played their last home game on the Seahawk turf and will be graduating include halfbacks Charles Krummel and Norman Morse, fullback Jones, end Walcott, tackle Tony Kaitane, guard Bill Meredith and center Bill Rainey.

Boy Scouts to Collect Toys On Saturday

The Boy Scouts of Virginia Beach will be on the march Saturday for old toys, dolls, games and nickies in an effort to light the glow of Christmas in the eyes of some child this year.

Young Scouts from four troops, aided by personnel and trucks from the area Saturday afternoon to the Junior Chamber of Commerce annual Toy Plant drive.

The troops participating and their sponsors are Troop 60 headed by Hugh Gass (Presbyterian Church); Troop 61 headed by Clement Wood (Episcopal Church); Troop 300 headed by M. Worthington (Star of the Sea Church); and Troop 375 (Lutheran Church) headed by Lynn Gilling.

The Scouts will begin their march at 1 o'clock. Anyone who is minded and still wishes to give toys is requested to call the Virginia Beach Fire Department.

Meanwhile, Bill Nevins, head of the registration committee, said that Toy Fund applications are available at WDOF, the Sun-News and the Princess Anne Free Press. He added that applications must be turned into Box 274 by December 10th.

Legion Fashion Show Set for Presentation Here Friday Night

The annual fashion show of the American Legion Auxiliary of Post 133 is scheduled for Friday night at the American Legion home on Laskin Road. The theme for this year's show is "Holidays in Fashion."

All of the models are local residents with many members of both the American Legion and the Auxiliary unit serving as models.

The show is a popular annual feature of the Auxiliary Unit and proceeds are used for charity work by the group.

The show is scheduled to get underway at 8:30 p. m. Fashions are being furnished by Florence Wilson for the ladies and by Cherry-Pearson for the men.

Culpepper New Clerk for P.A. County Court

Horace A. Culpepper, 37, has been named clerk of Princess Anne County Court, succeeding George W. Halstead Jr.

Judge J. Davis Reed Jr. said Monday night that Halstead had been out for some time with a stomach ailment.

Court records show that Halstead became clerk of the county court in 1956.

Halstead lives in Sand Bridge.

Culpepper's appointment became effective Saturday, Judge Reed said.

Culpepper, who lives at Barrett, Corryer, has resigned his post as county coordinator of civil defense, effective Nov. 15. He will be on official leave from the civil defense position until that time.

Prior to becoming civil defense coordinator, he served as a county game warden.

The father of two children, he is married to the former Miss Bessie Mae Mayo of Norfolk. He is a member of Kempville Baptist Church, where he serves as a deacon and teaches a Bible class.

A Navy veteran, he graduated from Norview High School in 1939. He is also a member of the Kempville Lions Club.

Beach Officials Given Strong Vote; Downing Popular With Voters; Amendment Approved

Princess Anne County voters gave Senator Harry Byrd a whopping 4 to 1 majority over Independent Candidate Louise E. Wenell in Tuesday's balloting which saw the Democrats throughout the nation swamp the Republicans.

Unofficial complete returns gave Byrd 4,686 votes to Dr. Wenell's 1,290.

Clarke T. Robb, who ran on a Social Democrat ticket, received 97 votes in the county.

Thomas N. Downing of Warwick, running unopposed for his first term in Congress as the Democratic nominee for the First District seat in the House of Representatives, amassed 4,811 county votes.

A proposed constitutional amendment which will permit counties to borrow school construction money from the state supplemental retirement system also met with favor. The vote was 4,661 for the amendment and 421 against.

In only one county did Sen. Byrd fail to gain a majority. The Sealack precinct gave him one vote, while turning in 45 votes for Dr. Wenell and nine for Robb. It is a Negro precinct.

The vote in Princess Anne has exceeded pre-election forecasts, which had predicted only a light vote.

"This is an overwhelming vote of confidence in the Senator," one Byrd organization man said.

One man was top stick to go to the polls, an election worker said "or we would probably have been unanimous."

Dr. Wenell, 37, is a physician and lives in Sealack. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1956. He is a member of the Sealack Baptist Church and a member of the Sealack Lions Club.

Dr. Downing is a physician and lives in Sealack. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1956. He is a member of the Sealack Baptist Church and a member of the Sealack Lions Club.

Dr. Robb is a physician and lives in Sealack. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1956. He is a member of the Sealack Baptist Church and a member of the Sealack Lions Club.

To See Byrd On Wednesday

Dr. Wenell, 37, is a physician and lives in Sealack. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1956. He is a member of the Sealack Baptist Church and a member of the Sealack Lions Club.

Dr. Downing is a physician and lives in Sealack. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1956. He is a member of the Sealack Baptist Church and a member of the Sealack Lions Club.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor in our life for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a workshop of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, society degenerates and civilization crumbles. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Isaiah	4	13-15
Monday	Isaiah	1	1-17
Tuesday	Isaiah	1	18-20
Wednesday	Isaiah	30	1-10
Thursday	Isaiah	4	1-5
Friday	Isaiah	4	16-18
Saturday	Isaiah	4	11-13

No, he doesn't predict the future. From antiquity the prophets have been those who speak for God. In every generation they have explained His promises... pointed out His warnings.

Some men believed the prophets, and saw God's promises fulfilled. Others were skeptical—until their own bitter experience vindicated God's warnings.
No wonder many thought the prophets were reading the future. To every thus saith the Lord a later historian had to add and it came to pass. In a pulp it not far from your home there will stand next Sunday an earnest, thoughtful, consecrated man. He is a prophet! He can't predict whether you'll come to hear him. But he's preparing right now to speak for God—TO YOU. It is the One who calls the prophets who knows... whether you'll come... whether you'll believe... and all the future holds in store for you.

14 Archers Bag Deer on Hog Island Hunt

A total of 14 deer were taken off the Hog Island state waterfowl refuge during a special permit-only hunt October 1-15, the Virginia Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries announced today. Deer of either sex as well as raccoon, fox, crow and opossum were fair game and seven deer of each sex were taken, the Commission stated.

Largest deer taken during the hunt, according to refuge manager Hansel Taylor, was a 65-pound doe bagged by Fred J. Henley of Norfolk. Almost as large was the 63-pound doe taken by Edith P. Still of Virginia Beach.

Applications for the special bow hunt on this refuge 70 miles east of Richmond on the James River were received by the Commission until September 10 and successful applicants were notified prior to September 20. A camping site and parking area were provided for the participating archers. No other hunting is allowed on this 2100-acre marshland, which has been managed as a waterfowl refuge by the Game Commission since February 1951.

Vet Service Officer To Visit Beach November 13th

On Thursday, November 13, 1958, Tom Moore, Veterans Service Officer from Norfolk, will be available at the Virginia Beach Convention Center ("The Dome") on Pacific Avenue at 10th Street, to counsel and file claims and forms for veterans and their survivors. Moore makes this usual visit, scheduled for the second and fourth Thursdays each month, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Moore is a representative of the Commonwealth of Virginia, Division of War Veterans Claims, a State agency, but associated with the Federal Government, that is authorized to represent veterans and their survivors in development and presentation of their claims and applications before the Veterans Administration and other Government agencies for benefits to which they may be entitled under law. The services of the Division are free and the representatives are trained persons with much experience, and all war veterans themselves.

The Division is under the direction of Harry F. Carper Jr., whose offices are in the State Veterans Administration office in Roanoke. The Division operates under the Virginia Department of Law, the Honorable Albert S. Harrison Jr., Attorney General. Moore's office in Norfolk is located at 265 McKeever Building, 203 City Hall Avenue, telephone MAdison 2-6071.

The Adult Confirmation Class of Galilee Episcopal Church will meet Tuesday evening, November 11th at the church.

Henry I. Jaffe Re-elected by Cripple Society

Announcement has just been made of the election of Henry I. Jaffe of Virginia Beach for another three-year term as a member of the State Board of Directors of the Virginia Society for Crippled Children.

At the last state-wide meeting, held in Roanoke last summer, a new code of regulations were adopted that provided for an enlarged scope of activity throughout the State. It is hoped that the new facility at New Castle, Va., will be entirely completed so that the summer enrollment at "Camp Easter Seal" will be greatly increased.

Camp Easter Seal is unique in the respect that it is one of the few camp sites for crippled children in the entire world that is able to combine recreation facilities for the handicapped as well as the therapeutic treatment, speech corrections, and victims of Multiple Sclerosis and other crippling diseases.

The Virginia Beach Kiwanis Club with the help of the Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Key Clubs will sponsor another door to door Christmas peanut and candy sale throughout the city and county during the month of December. This club has been active in behalf of the crippled children's society throughout the past two years.

Charity Church Supper-Bazaar Slated Saturday

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Charity Methodist Church, Back Bay, will have their annual supper and bazaar on Saturday night, November 8th, 1958. Turkey or barbecue supper served from 5 to 8 p.m. Price, $1.25 per plate. Bazaar will begin at 8 p.m.

PRINCESS ANNE COUNTY ENTERS SOUTHEASTERN DISTRICT FORAGE CROP CONTEST

The District 12-month Forage Crop Contest is a contest between County Agents within each of the six Extension districts in Virginia. The purpose of this contest between County Agents is to stimulate the County Agents into promoting the improving pasture and forage crop production and utilization on farms in the state by recognizing up to three counties in each Extension district which have the most outstanding 12-month Forage Program in 1958. This program includes pasture hay, and silage production.

The report that we have submitted from Princess Anne County points out its activities and demonstrations that have been conducted in Princess Anne for the promotion of forage crops. The participation in this awards program is by no means a selfish one, but rather one with the interest of the farm people in the county at heart. No livestock on any farm whether it be dairy, beef cattle, sheep or hogs can be successful without a plentiful supply of top quality forage.

In determining the needs of the county a committee of farmers representing all phases of livestock production met with the County Agent to discuss the situation and to determine those activities that would be carried out in 1958 to successfully demonstrate a successful forage crop program. Bob DeFord, one of our young Bayville farmers, is chairman of this committee with Stuart Lives, Bill Davis, John Potter, Bill Oliver, and Ralph Bidgett Jr., serving on the committee with him.

I feel that the forage crop activities carried out in Princess Anne during the past year have been most successful and if farmers take advantage of observing the many demonstration and other activities that are conducted I feel that it will be of tremendous value to them in their particular farming operation.

THREE COASTAL BERMDA GRASS DEMONSTRATIONS

The Coastal Bermuda demonstration started in 1957 on the farm of Roger and Beverly Sawyer was continued in 1958. However, this demonstration has been a failure in that the demonstration plot did not receive normal rainfall after seeding in 1957 and due to the drought this project did not materialize as we had expected.

Two other rather large demonstrations were started in 1958. The most successful demonstration was a 5-acre plot on Bayville Farm. This demonstration is now being grazed and has provided about 120 days grazing this summer. It was planted the first of June. Cooperating in this demonstration was the Plant Food Institute of Virginia and North Carolina, who provided the stolons. This demonstration was included on the Pasture Fertilization tour.

The third Coastal Bermuda demonstration and the second started in 1958 was a 2-acre plot on the farm of H. C. Moore and Son. This plot was seeded by the broadcast method and a very poor stand was secured at the first planting. Some replanting had to be done. This plot was irrigated and even with this advantage it has not had the success that the Bayville plot has had. This will be a successful demonstration, however. This demonstration was included on the Pasture Fertilization tour.

FIVE HILAGE TESTS

John Shoulders, Forage Crop Specialist at VPI, desired some assistance in working out a Silage Crop Program and we have endeavored to assist him to the best of our ability. Yields from three corn silage fields have been determined; one sorghum planted in rows and one planted broadcast.

We have not gotten all of the information yet, but we are looking forward to the analysis.

"GROW IT, SAVE IT, AND FEED IT"

Our committee felt that the production and harvesting of forage plays probably the most important part in a dairy farmer's program. They suggested that a full day of the Dairyman's Short Course be devoted to forage. As a result a full day was devoted entirely to forage, with "Grow It, Save It, and Feed It" being the topic of discussion.

SEEDSMEN AND FARMERS GET RECOMMENDATIONS

All seedsmen, fertilizer dealers, salesmen, and farmers received a letter from the Agent encouraging the use of VPI recommendations in production and harvesting of forage crops. A copy of the varieties and recommendations were mailed to each of the persons involved. Professional workers received copies of all new bulletins on forage.

SUDAN-PEARL MILLET COMPARISON DEMONSTRATION

Many questions have been asked about the difference between Sudan Grass and Pearl Millet for summer pasture for Beef and Dairy Cattle. As a result of the many questions a Sudan-Pearl Millet comparison demonstration was seeded on the farm of W. W. Oliver. Both were planted in the same field and cows were allowed to select the grass of their choice. In the beginning stage the cattle selected the Sudan Grass, however, as both became older and Sudan Grass began to blight the cows selected the Pearl Millet; probably due to the more succulent nature at the time.

FOUR RED CLOVER HAY DEMONSTRATIONS

Quality hay has always been a problem in our county and as a result our Forage Crop Committee suggested four Red Clover demonstrations for hay. These were held on the farms of Joe Herberger, Pembroke Farms, George Walker, and John Potter. One plot was of the Chesapeake variety, and the other three were Kenland. Different methods of seeding were used. One had Orchard Grass added; two were seeded without a nurse crop; and two were seeded with a nurse crop. This year the fields seeded without the nurse crop gave better returns than those seeded with nurse crops. On John Potter's field a comparison was made between the yield and quality of Red Clover and Lespedeza. John says, "Red Clover yielded more this fall than the Lespedeza and I feel it is better quality hay." Both were seeded in late spring of 1958. All of the farmers cooperating with the demonstrations are very pleased with Red Clover.

THREE NITROGEN FERTILIZATION DEMONSTRATIONS AND TOUR

Three nitrogen fertilization demonstrations and a tour were held with each of these three demonstrations visited. In cooperation with these demonstrations were Aracadian Nitrogen who supplied the nitrogen materials and the Farmers Fertilizer and Seed Company who distributed the nitrogen materials.

The first demonstration was at Bayville Farms on the Coastal Bermuda Grass Demonstration. One hundred pounds of pure nitrogen was applied to an acre of this Coastal Bermuda Grass. This made a total of 200 pounds of nitrogen that this acre has had.

The second nitrogen application demonstration was held on the farm of Captain V. B. Tate, a beef cattle producer. Three plots were used in this demonstration. One plot received 120 pounds per acre. One received 60 pounds per acre and one received no pounds of nitrogen per acre. 6x6 foot fences were erected in each plot to be able to determine the yield and quality of the fescue in the different plots. The farmers were asked to keep close observation of these plots to make notes of the areas in which the cattle grazed. It is noted that the cattle grazed almost continuously on the plot that received 120 pounds of nitrogen per acre.

The third nitrogen application demonstration was on the farm of H. C. Moore and Son. The nitrogen was applied through an irrigation system on common Bermuda. Our luck did not hold up on this demonstration in that during the time that the irrigation system was pumping water on the pasture the sky opened up and dumped about one inch of water on the pasture about the same time the irrigation system was pumping water onto the pasture. The County Agent was accused of being slightly off his rocker. Even with the rain fifteen folks stayed to view the demonstration.

The Farmers Fertilizer and Seed Company provided a free lunch to all members on the tour.

MASS MEDIA

Newspaper articles were written on various phases of forage crops and radio programs were given during the year with almost an average of one each week. Timely hints of storing excess silage were also given. One TV program on Forage Crop Production was also presented.

Numerous farm visits were made in carrying out this 12-month Forage Contest.

We have had many trouble shooting calls on disease and insects and these were answered promptly. Assistance was given to those farmers either by the Agent or a forage crop specialist from VPI.

We have no expectations of being named one of the three winners in the Forage Crop Program. However, we are proud of the work that has been done in this particular commodity because it represents and illustrates the part that Extension Service plays in the livelihood of farmers. Not only are there programs in forage crops being conducted for farmers but similar programs for all commodities in the farming operation are being carried out from day to day in an attempt to assist farm people in the production and marketing of their farm products in order for them to realize the greatest net profit possible.

ALFALFA SEEDING DEMONSTRATION

A small alfalfa seeding demonstration was conducted in cooperation with Mr. Jack Fester in his farm. The Williamsburg variety was used and fertilized according to recommendations. Although we enjoyed examining this demonstration it did not yield the tonnage expected.

Get all the best of all the new ideas
all in one car!

EXCLUSIVELY YOURS—WIDE-TRACE WHEELS

The wheels moved out 5 inches for the widest, readiest stance in America—better cooling for engine and brakes—lower center of gravity for better grip on the road, safer cornering, smoother ride. You get the most beautiful road ability you've ever known—in America's Number One Road Car!

You get the solid quality of Body by Fisher.

You name it—Pontiac has it... the year's most important advances in style, safety, handling and performance. And they're topped by a Pontiac exclusive... Wide-Trace Wheels! Everything about this new kind of car was designed to give you driving as you've never known it: Air-Cooled True-Contour Brakes for precise, unvarying control in stop after stop after stop... spacious vista-lounge interiors, with seats wider than a sofa and full circle visibility (the Vista-Panoramic windshield curves clear up into the roof).

And there are two great new engines to choose from—the Tempest 420 for the ultimate in V-8 action and response... and its money-saving companion, the Tempest 420E, a big muscular V-8 that uses regular gas and delivers better mileage than many smaller cars with so-called "economy engines". Styling?—the newest, lowest look on the road—protected by Magic-Mirror non-fade finish. There's much more—come see for yourself—all the wonderful new ideas in America's Number One Road Car!

Better Business Film Selected For Exhibition

The Better Business Bureau Story was selected by the Film Producers' Association of New York for exhibition at the showcases and Conference on Special Films continued as a part of the Second Annual Audio Visual Exhibition held in New York City last week. The presentation of a "Certificate of Acceptance" was made jointly to Pathscope Productions, the producer of the film and the Association of Better Business Bureaus at the Exhibition Banquet in the Hotel New Yorker, Thursday night, October 23.

Other films of similar purpose and length so honored at the Exhibition included:

The Look of Prosperity—Westinghouse Electric; The Word is Spreading—Fleetway; The Rubber Islands under the Wind—Pan American World Airways; Psychiatric Nursing—Smith, Kline & French; The Dew Line—Western Electric; Beyond the Valley—Standard Oil Company; One Road, Ford Motor Company.

The Better Business Bureau Story was judged to be high in its "public service values—in taking stands against injustices in the hope of correcting them."

This 27½ minute full color film was released in May of this year. It has already been shown as a public-service presentation by 71 TV Stations throughout the country before an audience estimated at 6,984,423, and it has been enthusiastically received by 28,304 people at 514 group showings. Initially, the film was presented to business and civic leaders on a closed-circuit, full color premiere over the entire NBC network.

The Better Business Bureau Story is the first of a series of half hour, public-service films presented to television and group showings to help the public derive satisfaction from various business transactions. The second film in the series, "The Living Wage," was released early this summer with a well written, produced and acted story that presents the problems faced by a family when it has a child to arrange for a funeral. The film too, has been well received and has already been shown over 30 TV stations. Other films in the series are currently in the planning stages.

The Tidewater Better Business Bureau has this film available for group showings in social, civic, fraternal and veteran organizations. Please call the Bureau at Madison 2-9710 for booking arrangements.

Here Is Quiz On Girl Scouts

Do you believe in girls? Mrs. Paul Dolgin, Princess Anne District Chairman for the Girl Scouts asks these questions.

Do you believe that the growth-up years of every girl are important . . . to her, to her community and her world? Do you believe that girls need help in learning to work and play together?

Do you believe that girls need people and ideas to grow by? Do you believe it would be fun to share your hobbies and interests with girls?

Are your convictions strong enough to do something about it?

If you can answer "yes" to these questions, there is just the right job for you in Girl Scouts. Please contact Mrs. Dolgin at Garden 5-0803 for more information on how you can help the exciting program in this area. We of the Princess Anne District hope you can answer "yes." We all believe in girls and want to help.

Judges for Artists, Models Ball November 21 Named

Judges for the fourth annual Artists and Models Ball to be held at the Cavalier Club on the night of November 21 have been announced, according to a spokesman for the Virginia Beach Art Association, the sponsoring organization.

The judges, as announced, are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney S. Kellam, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton May, Admiral and Mrs. F. Macle Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bell Jr. Mrs. S. T. McConnell is serving as advisor to the committee chairman.

The theme selected this year is "Hollywood" and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes for men and women and for couples. Elwood Duncanson's orchestra will play for dancing in the Cavalier Ballroom.

Mrs. Aubrey Richardson is chairman of this year's event while Mrs. J. Frank East III serves as co-chairman. Tickets are $2.50 per person.

Seahawks Face Windsor in Final Game Here Tonight

Virginia Beach will be going for its seventh conference victory and a certain tie for the Group II District one championship tonight when Windsor invades the Beach Memorial Stadium at 8:00 o'clock.

The Seahawks, who have not been defeated this year in conference play, will be gunning for a tie with York and Prince George, who also have remained undefeated. They have downed six conference foes by the following scores: Deep Creek 21-12, Poquoson 18-0, James Blair 19-0, Northampton 13-13, Smithfield 45-0, and last week added Holland to the list 46-13.

In building up the score against Holland, three backs contributed two touchdowns each and the Virginia Beach center intercepted a pass and ran it for a touchdown.

Halfback Norman Morse broke loose through the right side of the Holland line twice, once for 72 yards and again for 40 yards to start the Virginia Beach scoring spree. Morse was then injured with a charley-horse in the calf of the leg and missed the rest of the game.

Halfback Charlie Krummell and fullback "Skip" Jones then took over with Jimmy Jacobs doing the quarter backing. Both Krummell and Jones cashed in twice to add up the scoring of the Seahawks.

The last touchdown came when center Bill Rainey intercepted a Holland pass and swirled-hipped his way for 30 yards to pay dirt. Halfback Krummell then followed with his sixth extra point of the night.

The Seahawks have arranged to play the game against Windsor here at the Beach. The Seahawks are 6-3 for the season, losing three Group I encounters. They will be staking a perfect conference record and the title against Windsor here tonight.

Seahawks in Farewell Game Tonight

News Digest

Donald Lee Adkins has been sentenced to 30 days in jail on a charge of giving false information to police.

Adkins, of the 7900 block of Thompson Rd., near Little Creek, was convicted on the charge Monday afternoon in County Court.

He was a witness for the Commonwealth last week, during the trial of George Robinson, charged with illegal sale of whiskey. Adkins testified then that he was "so drunk" he did not remember anything that happened. He had previously made a statement that Robinson had sold him the whiskey, according to testimony yesterday of Detective Robert Green and Patrolman Herbert Elliott.

The case against Robinson was dismissed. But the false information judge was then lodged against Adkins. Green read a statement in court yesterday in which Adkins related that he had purchased whiskey from Robinson.

Walter Twine, of the 5600 block of Second St., Norfolk, was fined $100 and given a three-day jail sentence in County Court here Monday after being convicted of operating a vehicle at a speed in excess of 100 miles an hour.

"You're the fastest driver I've seen in some time," Judge J. Davis Reed Jr. stated as he imposed the fine.

Judge Reed first sentenced Twine to 10 days in jail. However after Twine's parents told him the defendant would lose his job if he were jailed that long, Judge Reed reduced the sentence to three days. "You did him a favor by arresting him," the defendant's father told Patrolman W. J. Moore who made the arrest.

Charles W. Olfender, Lynnhaven, was fined $50 in County Court Monday after being convicted of carrying a concealed weapon.

A woman testified he threatened her and her boy friend. Arresting officers said they found the defendant with a .38 Smith & Wesson.

Colonial Stores Declares Dividend

ATLANTA, GA.—The Directors of Colonial Stores Incorporated have declared regular quarterly cash dividends of 27½c on the common stock, 50c on the 4 per cent preferred stock and 62½c on the 9 per cent preferred stock.

In addition, a 2 per cent stock dividend was declared on common stock at the rate of one share for each 50 shares outstanding, in line with policy announced by the board of directors earlier.

The cash dividends, as declared, are payable December 1, 1958, to stockholders of record November 14, 1958.

The stock dividend is payable January 23, 1959, to stockholders of record January 9, 1959.

Colonial Stores is one of the nation's largest food chains, operating more than 400 supermarkets in 11 states east of the Mississippi: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

Groups Protest North Virginia Beach Motel Application

Arguments about whether a $300,000 motel would lower property values in North Virginia Beach were heard at a meeting of the Princess Anne Planning Commission Monday night.

More than 100 Beach residents opposed to the motel turned up at the commission's meeting in the county courthouse, some of them standing in the aisle and around the walls.

The application for a change in zoning by the Asst. for Research and Enlightenment, owner of the site of the proposed motel on the west side of Atlantic avenue at 62nd street.

Opposing the application were representatives of the North Virginia Beach Improvement League and the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

An attorney for the applicants produced three letters from Virginia Beach real estate men, who said they saw no reason why the value of property adjacent to the motel site should drop if the motel were built.

Other motels and commercial enterprises already existed in the area, he said.

Improvement League representatives said all the businesses in the area were on the other side of Atlantic avenue, and that some of them had been in existence when the area was first zoned.

Maxton S. Gray Attending Vepco Supervisory School

Mr. Maxton S. Gray of Virginia Beach, is in Richmond for two weeks attending the Supervisory Development School of Virginia Electric and Power Company.

Mr. Gray, who is Line Foreman with Vepco here, is one of a group of Vepco supervisors from various areas served by the utility selected to attend the company's training school.

The school, a regular feature of the utility company's personnel training program, covers all phases of company operation and includes sessions on supervisory methods and personnel development. Instructors in the school are top management representatives from every department in the company.

While in Richmond, the students at the school devote full time to their curriculum, including several night sessions.

Began last year, the school is now in its second year of almost continuous operation.

American Little League Meet Wed.

Parents of boys in American Little League age group 8 through 12, residents North of 31st Street, are urged to attend a meeting of the league to be held Wednesday, November 19th, 1958, at 7:30 p.m. at the Community House, 18th St. and Arctic Ave.

Support of parents is necessary if the Little League is to continue in the coming 1959 season.

This meeting will mean the going ahead or the closing of American Little League baseball in Virginia Beach.

County Warns Of Loose Dogs

Loose dogs may cause Princess Anne County residents a peck of trouble, including loss of the dog and a fine in court, or both.

Complaints received by the office of Richard J. Webbon, executive secretary of the Princess Anne Board of Supervisors, called attention to the problem. Anne could not resist the temptation to dog himself.

They are fond of, or at least, a valuable, should endeavor to keep the dog confined on a leash, street or on the beach, the dog should be properly leashed, Webbon said.

Failure to comply with the regulations may result in having the dog declared a nuisance with possible loss of the animal and/or punishment of the owner.

The law provides a maximum penalty in such cases of a fine not to exceed $250 and/or jail for not more than 30 days.

Owners of dogs are also reminded that dog tags for the coming year were placed on sale in the county treasurer's office Nov. 1.

Tags for male and unsexed dogs are 10¢; females are 25¢.

Mayor Bids For Voyage

Judge Kellam Estate Valued At $100,000

Princess Anne Circuit Court Judge Floyd E. Kellam, who died Oct. 18, left an estate valued at $100,000.

A probate of the late judge's will filed in Princess Anne Circuit Court showed a personal estate worth $30,000 and real estate worth $50,000.

Mrs. Anne R. Kellam, the judge's widow, and her son, Floyd E. Kellam Jr., were named executors and trustees of the estate.

Two trust funds were set up by the terms of the will.

One trust will consist of 50 per cent of the adjusted gross estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes. The net income from the trust was bequeathed to the Kellam family.

The first trust was to be paid to the Kellam family for the balance of the estate after payment of the sum to set up the trust plus payment of final expenses and the balance of the estate.

A sum of $5,000 was reserved from the principal of the second trust for the education of the judge's 14-year-old daughter, Rebecca Randolph Kellam.

Net income from the second trust was bequeathed to Mrs. Kellam.

The event was presided over by Judge Kellam, the second trust was set up to provide for the education of the judge's daughter.

There are three children of Judge Kellam: Rebecca Randolph Kellam, 14, and two sons, James and Robert Kellam.

Pony League To Meet Tonight

A meeting for the members of a Pony Baseball League organization is scheduled to be held tonight in the Oceana Elementary School for youngsters in the Lanesville District and the City of Virginia Beach.

The announcement was made by Jim Lall, Princess Anne County Recreation Director. The announcement stated that league officers and the names of the participants would be on the meeting agenda.

Pony League baseball is for 13 and 14 year old boys. It was organized out last year about 15 boys interested in this league to be trained for tonight's meeting which will commence at 8 o'clock.

Referendum on 1959 Corn Crop Set for Nov. 25

Two alternative corn programs will be offered farmers in a referendum on Tuesday, November 25, 1958. A simple majority of all producers in the 1958 commercial corn area who vote in the referendum will determine which program is to be in effect for 1959.

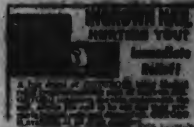

W. T. Powers, State Administrative Officer for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee, outlined these programs as follows:

Under the first program designated as program No. 1, there would be no commercial corn producing area and acreage allotments now in effect would be discontinued. All corn producers would be eligible for price support with no restrictions on acreage. The level of support would be 90% of the average price which corn producers received in the three preceding years but not less than 85% of parity or probably about $1.12 to $1.15 per bushel. This would be an entirely new corn program.

Program No. 2 would be essentially the same as that in effect in recent years. The commercial corn producing area would be reconstituted and producers in this area would be required to plant within their farm allotments to be eligible for price support. The support level would be from 75 to 90 per cent of parity or probably about $1.24 to $1.27 per bushel. If growers choose program No. 2 the national allotment for 1959 would likely be about 33,000,000 acres compared with the 1958-crop allotment of 28,819,285 acres, or a cut of about 15 per cent.

Powers stated that polling will be located in convenient places throughout each commercial corn county. The commercial corn counties for 1958 in Virginia are Accomac, Charles City, Clarke, Isle of Wight, Loudoun, Nansemond, Norfolk, Northampton, Northumberland, Princess Anne, Richmond, Southampton, Surry, Sussex, and Westmoreland. He furthermore strongly urges each eligible producer to vote his convictions in making this all-important decision affecting corn growers.

Studebaker's Lark Makes Debut; On Display Here

LARK by Studebaker, a completely new series of smaller, more economical, more maneuverable, "common sense" cars go on display November 14 in Studebaker dealer showrooms throughout the country.

Establishing a revolutionary new concept of automotive transportation, the brand-new 1959 Studebaker Larks were newly designed from tires to roof-top to meet the specific demands of today's driving needs.

The new Larks are smaller in overall size, yet actually are roomier inside than previous models. This was accomplished primarily by reducing front and rear "overhang" to a minimum, while at the same time maintaining a "big car" passenger compartment to enable six adults to ride in comfort.

The wheelbase of sedan and hardtop models is 104 1/2 inches, while overall length is only 175 inches—shorter than previous models by more than two feet. Yet, front leg room is equal to last year's Studebaker, and rear leg room is actually greater. (The new station wagons measure 113 inches in wheelbase, 194 inches in over-

Studebaker's 1959 Lark two-door sedan is powered by a 169.8-cubic inch engine with an improved combustion chamber design with a shorter stroke, plus a higher 8.3 to 1 compression ratio and new carburetion. The result: maximum economy of operation and durability, combined with smooth, lively performance. All Studebaker engines for all length.) Although slightly lower-over-all, the new Studebaker Larks provide headroom that is unexcelled in the low-price field. Shoulder and hip room are similar to last year's models.

Available in De Luxe and Regal versions, the 1959 Larks by Studebaker are richly and tastefully appointed both inside and out to appeal to the punter's desire for luxurious transportation. Yet, despite this luxury concept, the new models are priced below other cars in the low-price field.

Describing the new models, Studebaker-Packard President Harold E. Churchill explained that "the completely new 1959 Studebaker Lark is the car the motoring public has told us it wants—and has urged us to build. It is a car of modest price, yet featuring the high quality, sound engineering and distinctive styling that a traditional was expected to have.

A functional, comfortable, family-size car that is economical to buy, economical to own, and economical to operate. And it establishes a wholly new concept of handling and parking ease among American cars.

Studebaker's reputation for style leadership is further advanced by the distinctive, modern design of its 1959 Larks. The basic design theme reflects elegance, tasteful simplicity and functional purpose. Duncan McEae, Studebaker-Packard's director of styling, pointed out that "because the 1959 Lark by Studebaker is based on sound engineering principles, rather than on exaggerated styling clichés, the new car achieves a permanence of design that will result in higher resale value. The new models were designed deliberately to stay in style indefinitely, for we feel strongly that most buyers resent their new car being obsolete by each ensuing year's models."

The new, smaller Lark is available in two and four-door sedans, two-door hardtop and station wagon models.

The dominant design theme of the new Lark by Studebaker is its distinctive grille, flanked by combination parking-directional lights and air scoop. Accentuating the graceful, flowing lines of the car, a single stainless steel molding sweeps back from above the headlights along the sides of the car and continues in an unbroken line around the rear. Along the sides, this molding curves as a rubrail to protect the finish from doors of other cars opening against it in tight parking areas.

The new cowl not only enhances the car's lower look, but results also in greater windshield area for improved visibility.

Smart new horizontal-oval tail lights provide illumination to the sides as well as to the rear of the car.

In keeping with the new model's clean, uncluttered, classic design, the hood and deck lid are free of meaningless ornamentation.

The 1959 Studebakers are available with either a brand-new six-cylinder or V-8 powerplant, and with either Flitomatic, overdrive or conventional transmission. Both new engines are designed to operate efficiently on regular, thus giving a very important plus in economy.

The new, shorter-stroke, 169.8 cubic inch, I-head six with an improved combustion chamber design, a higher compression ratio and new carburetion is designed for smooth, lively performance and maximum economy and durability. For those desiring the extra power of V-8 performance, Studebaker offers an improved, short-stroke, 259.2 cubic inch, V-8 engine with a higher compression ratio and new carburetion. This powerplant, too, provides exceptional economy of operation and long life.

Chief Engineer E. J. Hardig pointed out that "Studebaker's more efficient 1959 engines, coupled with the elimination of useless pounds of 'dead weight' in the car itself, result in a very marked improvement in both engine performance and gasoline economy."

Among other major engineering advances is a softer, smoother ride resulting primarily from Studebaker's improved variable-rate front coil spring design. These unique variable-rate springs automatically compensate for variations in load and road conditions to provide an exceptionally level, well-controlled ride over even the roughest roads. New shock absorber valving and redesigned rear leaf springs also contribute to Studebaker's improved riding qualities.

The new suspension system also results in increased stability with a substantial reduction in body roll on curves.

A new, more efficient steering gear is used on the Lark six-cylinder sedan, station wagon and hardtop models. It provides faster steering response, improved steering wheel "recovery" and requires fewer turns from extreme left to right. And, the effort required to turn the wheel has been so greatly reduced that power steering is not even offered on six-cylinder models. Power steering is available optionally on V-8s.

On the new Studebaker Larks, the turning diameter has been reduced considerably to enhance their sports-car maneuverability. A new, more rigid frame and body construction results in a quieter ride free of annoying squeaks and rattles.

Studebaker's adherence to functional design is further revealed by the use of removable fender panels. Should a panel become damaged, the cost of repair is far less than on conventional cars using integral panels.

A new under-dash heating, ventilating and defrosting unit provides improved heat distribution, faster defrosting and quieter operation. For protection from outside elements, the new heater motor is located inside the passenger compartment. A redesigned front seat permits the heat to flow unobstructed under the seat to the rear.

This new seat design also permits greater rear seat leg room. To prevent tampering with the engine, all 1959 Studebakers feature a new inside-the-car hood release.

On Lark sedan and hardtop models, the gas tank filler door is located more conveniently just in the right of the rear license plate.

Retracting front seats are available optionally on all 1959 Studebakers. Each divided front seat back is adjustable to seven different positions—including a position flush with the rear seat cushion to form a "bed."

Both front seat backs on two-door models can be folded forward simultaneously to permit rear seat passengers to enter and exit with greater ease. Front seats on all models are wider.

The Lark sedan and hardtop seats are upholstered in attractive, long-wearing nylon-rayon acetate fabric bolstered with top quality, haircell grain vinyl. All-vinyl seats are standard equipment in the Lark station wagon, and are available optionally in the Lark hardtop.

Interiors in all models are offered in one of four color schemes—blue, green, gray or tan—to harmonize with the seven new exterior colors—Hawallow Green, Campfire Red, Alaskan Blue, Tahiti Coral, Silverstone Gray, Velvet Black and White Sand.

The new Larks feature a newly designed instrument panel with large, easy-to-read dials located directly in front of the driver.

For maximum convenience, the glove compartment is located in the center of the panel, and the door opens out to form a horizontal "table" with built-in cup wells. Safety padding, both at the top and bottom of the panel, is standard on Regal models, optional on De Luxe models.

The exclusive Twin TrACTION "non-slip" differential is available optionally on all 1959 models, as are power brakes and air conditioning. The unique Automatic Hill Holder is offered optionally on all models except those equipped with Flitomatic transmission.

Optional on the Studebaker Lark station wagon is the practical Hideaway Third Seat which increases passenger carrying capacity from six to eight. When not in use, the seat folds down in the floor.

COAST TO COAST ONLY 1½ CENTS
PER MILE FOR GAS!Pontiac's new Tempest 420E V-8 sets the year's most important economy mark—Here's the story and what it means to you!

PONTIAC COAST-TO-COAST ECONOMY RUN

San Diego, California to Savannah, Georgia
COMPLETED OCTOBER 17, 1958

DISTANCE	2,442.7 MILES
DRIVING TIME	66.72 HOURS
FUEL CONSUMED	112.5 GALLONS
FUEL COST	$35.79
MILES PER GALLON	21.7 Average for entire trip
AVERAGE SPEED	40.2 MILES PER HOUR
COST PER MILE	1.465 CENTS

We asked one of America's most respected car testers—"Uncle Tom" McCahill—to put a standard Pontiac Catalina Sedan with our new economy V-8 to the test:

And with only one specification—that the run would be exactly like you would drive coast to coast yourself—in mountains, in city traffic, across deserts, buying gas wherever the tank ran low.

And here's the phenomenal story in every complete detail—all officially certified by NASCAR, America's top automobile competition authority.

What does it mean to you?
Simply—and very importantly—this: For the first time, you can get deep-chested V-8 pep with better mileage than from many smaller so-called "economy cars"... and get it on regular fuel!

If you owned a Pontiac with this new Tempest 420E V-8 you'd be saving up to 5 cents a gallon on regular fuel. This new economy V-8 is optional at no extra cost on any Hydra-Matic Pontiac!

See your Pontiac dealer soon—and discover the newest in V-8 performance and economy!

Amphib Base Pony League Elects Officers

OCEANA—Officers were elected for the Amphibious Base Pony League for 1959 at a meeting held last week in the Shelton Park Elementary School. Mr. Gene Barrow was elected president; G. D. Williams, vice president; Mrs. J. R. Bullock, secretary; and Mr. J. W. Carr, treasurer. Chairmen of the following committees were also appointed: George Robbins, committee for field development and upkeep; John Mohler, committee to procure team managers; Jess Cannon, committee to procure equipment; Bill Bonnette, committee to procure uniforms; and J. W. Carr, finance committee. The next meeting was called for Tuesday, December 2nd, at 8 p.m. in the Shelton Park Elementary School. Adults interested in promoting this league are urged to attend.

Pony League Meeting Tonight

OCEANA—The second meeting to organize Pony League baseball for the Lynnhaven District and the City of Virginia Beach for 1959 will be held tonight at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Oceana School.

League officers will be elected and committees appointed to carry out the necessary details in operating this league.

Pony League Baseball is for boys 13-14 years of age; however, if a boy's 13th birthday falls on August 1 or after he is eligible to compete for that year.

All games in this league will probably be played in the Oceana Stadium.

Hood, Mrs. T. L. Woodhouse Jr., Mrs. H. L. Walsh, Mrs. L. E. Guy Jr., and Mrs. George R. Guy.

Mrs. John M. Camp Jr. of Franklin was guest speaker and gave a very interesting talk on "Dried Arrangements" and their importance in color scheme to harmonize with the room and bring out colors in fabrics. Mrs. Camp also gave tips for gathering, arranging and preserving dried arrangements. Fresh dried material may be inserted with florist wire to hang upside down for drying process. Put in paper bag to preserve color. Fragile flowers such as roses, jonquills and camellias should be dried in borax, meal or sand. Mrs. Fred Haycox Jr. announced that the date of the annual Christmas green sale would be December 18, 19 and 20.

Fort Story TELLINGS

STORY TELLING COMPLETE

Fort Story's 417th Transportation Company returned to the Cape Henry post Thursday afternoon after nearly four months of duty above the arctic circle in the Baffin Island area of Canada.

The company, under the command of Lt. Col. John Washington, became a mobile terminal command once it arrived in the arctic. Its mission throughout the period was to resupply remote radar installations of the Distance Early Warning (DEW) Line system.

Throughout the four month period the 200 men worked from and were housed aboard Navy and NIST LST's. They worked the cargo vessels with Army landing craft.

The return of the 417th leaves only one Fort Story unit in the arctic. The 565th Transportation Company is expected to return later this month from Sondrestrom, Greenland, after a six-month tour of duty. Three other units have completed their missions and returned to the post.

Upon its return the 417th will be detached from its present parent unit, the 10th Transportation Battalion, and attached to the 14th Transportation Battalion.

PORT STORY HOLIDAY OF THE MONTH

A 22-year-old Fort Story Master Sergeant, Wilfred P. Penneck, was selected this week by a board of officers to be the post's "Soldier of the Month" for November.

A resident of Baxter Springs, Kansas, now a Platoon Sergeant in the 870th Transportation Company, Penneck entered the Army in August 1951 at Fort Riley, Kan.

Prior to being assigned to Fort Story last year he was with the 9th Infantry Division at Fort Carson, Colo.

Penneck is a graduate of Chetopa Kansas High School and Miami Junior College where he lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track each year.

STORY HEADQUARTERS ON FIELD EXERCISE

The Headquarters and Headquarters Company of the 4th Transportation Terminal Command "C" at Fort Story are participating in a week-long field exercise at Camp A. P. Hill in northern Virginia. The exercise began Monday morning.

The "Command Post Exercise" is designed to give the staff officers and their sections practical training in the mission of their divisions. The exercise is also designed to refresh the men in basic Infantry tactics.

The unit is under the command of Col. George E. Woods Jr., Fort Story's Commanding Officer, and Lt. Col. Seaborn H. Mosley, Chief of Staff. It will return to Fort Story Friday.

The training was inspected Wednesday by Brig. Gen. A. W. Lyon, Commandant of the Transportation School at Fort Rust, Va.

Pairings Decided In County Youth Football League

OCEANA — Playoffs for the Princess Anne County Midget and Junior Football Championships will begin Saturday, November 15th.

Four teams will compete in each division for the championships. The number one teams will play the number four teams and the number two teams will play the number three teams. The winners of these games will meet Saturday, Nov. 22nd, to decide the County Championships. Final positions of teams were decided on their won and lost records compiled during season play. Teams were awarded two points for a win, one point for a tie, and no points for a loss.

The teams accumulating the greatest number of points was placed in the first position, etc.

In the Midget League Diamond Springs finished with six wins and no defeats; Kempville, second with two wins, three losses, and one tie; Oceana, third with two wins and four losses; and Aragona Village, fourth with one win, four losses, and one tie.

In the Junior League, Davis Corner finished first with six wins and no defeats; Aragona Village second with two wins, three losses and one tie; Oceana, third with two wins and four losses; and Diamond Springs, fourth with one win, four losses and one tie.

In the Midget playoffs beginning Saturday, November 15th, Kempville will play host to Oceana at Kempville, and Aragona Village will play Diamond Springs at Oceana. Both games will start at 8 p.m. In the Junior playoffs beginning the same day, Diamond Springs will meet Davis Corner at Kempville and Oceana will play host to Aragona Village at Oceana. These games will begin at 7:45 p.m.

The unit is under the command of Col. George E. Woods Jr., Fort Story's Commanding Officer, and Lt. Col. Seaborn H. Mosley, Chief of Staff. It will return to Fort Story Friday.

...hint now for an ELECTRIC
DISHWASHER

Talk about having Christmas every day! Mrs. Modern celebrates it every time she turns on the Electric Dishwasher Santa brought her last year! For this electric helper alone saves her six wonderful hours a week. Extra hours to enjoy family fun... keep up with her reading... do the things that were once so hard to fit into her busy schedule.

This Christmas YOU be Mrs. M! You'll not only get a lifelong vacation from the sink... you'll guard your family's health with the cleanest dishes ever. That's because an Electric Dishwasher uses water far hotter than hands could bear, and dries without a dish towel's touch. So better take your Santa on a visit to your Electric Appliances Dealer's... soon!

MONEYWELL MOLE makes his mark...

Moneywell started young and poor, right at the top of the ladder. He saved every penny he could. "Someday," he said, "I'll make good—I'll get all the way down to the bottom."

He learned early how valuable the telephone could be in saving time and money. For instance, he didn't make long, unnecessary trips to run errands or shop—he telephoned.

So relaxed and efficient was Moneywell at his job that he soon reached the very lowest depths of success. To his son, Moneywell Jr., he offered this advice about how to save money.

"When you start digging for a living, son, remember what the O & P ads say: the phone can save you more in one day than it costs for a month." "Sure, Dad," said Junior. "Any mole knows that."

Fellowship

It was Sunday morning. I had stopped only long enough on my journey for an hour of worship. The church was almost filled when I slipped into my seat. I knew no one. Yet between me and these worshippers there was a bond of Christian fellowship. I bowed my head in worship of our Lord.

Then I thought of those in distant lands who must worship the Christ amid ridicule and persecution. They too were my brethren and I prayed for them. Through the church rang the triumphant notes of the opening hymn, "Faith of our Fathers, Living Still."

My heart and my voice sang together as I remembered those of old who had labored and died that the Church might live. With fellow Christians, whom I did not know, I sang my promise:

"Faith of our fathers, holy faith
We will be true to thee till death."

If only everyone knew the joy and satisfaction that my faith brings to me! Start attending the services of the Church—and your life too will be enriched by that bond of Christian fellowship that has sustained millions through the centuries.

The MIXING BOWL.. IT'S FUN TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fashions, for practical, delicious and appetizing recipes, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Quick Tricks... Hi Ho Sweet Potato Puffs

To roll cracker crumbs, (you can use Ritz crackers or the Hi-Ho's) - roll with rolling pin on waxed paper - until very fine.
Yes M'am - yam time - Louisiana sweet potatoes in so many tempting ways - Roast 'em - make a pie - candied them - or try them in the following recipes—
An old-fashioned Louisiana Yam-Frankfurter Bake is fast enough to take the chill out of the air these days. And now is the hour to add this recipe to your permanent file while Louisiana yams are in abundant supply at your local market.

The easy preparation of this Southern dish consists of whipping fresh cooked Louisiana yams into a golden puff, then setting off with a pinwheel of mustard frankfurters atop onion slices. It's a divine dish for on-the-go-home-makers.

Louisiana Yam-Frankfurter Bake
(Make 4 servings)
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 medium-sized onion, sliced
2 eggs, well beaten
3 tablespoons prepared mustard
2 cups mashed cooked Louisiana yams

Melt butter or margarine; add onion and saute until tender. Remove onion; reserve drippings; add eggs, 1 tablespoon mustard and yams to drippings; mix well. Cut frankfurters in half lengthwise; spread cut surface with remaining 2 tablespoons mustard. Cut in half crosswise. Spread yam mixture over bottom and sides of greased shallow 1-quart casserole. Arrange onion and frankfurters over yam mixture. Bake in hot oven (400°) 30 minutes, or until lightly browned.

Louisiana Yam-Veal Patties
(Make 6 servings)
1 1/2 pounds ground veal
1 cup chopped onions
1 1/2 cups mashed cooked Louisiana yams
1 teaspoon salt

As Americans are so traditionally fond of the turkey for about holiday eating is another all-time favorite food, the sweet potato. Want a festive new way to serve this popular food? Try "Hi Ho Sweet Potato Puffs," they're just as delicious as they are easy to prepare. And be sure to add a tasty "pin" to any holiday meal your Southern Potato-mustard balls are rolled in rich buttery cracker crumbs and deep-fried to golden crisp perfection. Make them this easy way:

Hi Ho Sweet Potato Puffs
(Make 12 servings)
1 1/2 lb. 1/2-cu.-oz. sweet potatoes
1 egg, separated
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon (optional)
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1/2 cup cracker crumbs (about 12 crackers)

Mash sweet potatoes. Beat in egg yolk, salt, cinnamon and melted butter. Scrape potatoes into 6 equal mounds. Fold a marshmallow into the center of each mound and roll into a ball, coating the marshmallow. Beat the egg white until foamy. Dip each sweet potato ball into egg white; then roll in cracker crumbs to coat well. Fry until golden brown in deep fat, or broil on a greased broiling sheet and bake at 350° F. for 15 minutes, or until crisp and lightly browned.

1 teaspoon pepper
1 cup catchup
1 cup firmly-packed brown sugar
Combine veal, onion, yams, salt and pepper; mix well. Shape into 6 patties. Arrange in greased shallow baking pan. Combine catchup and sugar; mix well. Pour over patties. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 45 minutes.

Battered Nut Yams
(Make 4 servings)
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup chopped pecans
1 teaspoon cinnamon
4 medium-sized Louisiana yams, cooked, peeled and halved, or 1 can (1-pound) Louisiana yams, drained and halved.

Melt butter or margarine. Add nuts and cinnamon; mix well. Add yams and cook over low heat 5 minutes, or until thoroughly heated. By-Now—Sweet Potato Pie is calling me—

ALFALFA NEEDS LIME FOR TOP PRODUCTION

W. W. Moschler of the VPI agronomy staff, gives this report on a test at the Piedmont Research Station near Orange.

A strongly acid soil was limed with different rates of lime, and alfalfa was seeded. Yields went up as the rate of liming was increased. Furthermore the life of the stand was lengthened by increasing the rate of liming. For example, the alfalfa seeded on soil that received no lime germinated successfully and grew for a while, but died during the first year. The yield was about 1 of a ton, and all the plants were dead within 12 months.

Other plots were limed with one ton per acre. Here the yield was 11 tons, and about half of the plants died out during the first and second years. In contrast, on plots where 4 tons per acre of lime were applied, no plants have died. The stand is thick and strong, and will probably not thin out to any extent for several years.

Different soils will take different amounts of lime for alfalfa, Moschler says, to have the soil tested. The pH should be at least 6.5.

Moschler explains that liming is one of the three most important things to do to assure a high yielding, long lasting stand of alfalfa. The soil also must be deep and well-drained, and it must be fertilized generously, both when the alfalfa is seeded, and each cutting year thereafter.

TOPDRESSING WILL HELP PASTURE STAND

A liberal topdressing of fertilizer will help keep pasture stands in top-notch condition. Moschler says that the good growing season just past in Princess Anne County, much of the available plant food in the soil has been used. So topdressing is an important job this season if pastures are to remain in good condition.

The first essential factor in maintaining a productive pasture is to keep the pH between 6 and 6.5. Have the soil tested, and apply lime as needed.

Ladino clover-orchard grass or ladino clover-fescue mixtures should be topdressed with 400 to 800 pounds per acre of 0-14-14, 2-12-12 or from 200 to 400 pounds of 0-20-20 fertilizer, or the equivalent. If the pasture has been closely grazed, 0-10-10, 4-12-12 or 10-20-20 may be substituted. If the potash level is low, 0-10-20 may be desirable.

Orchard grass-lespedeza pastures should be topdressed with 300 to 500 pounds per acre of 0-10-20 or from 150 to 250 pounds of 10-20-20, or equivalent, in late winter or early spring.

INSECTS CAUSING TROUBLE IN ALFALFA

Insects are currently causing trouble in alfalfa fields in various parts of the state and farmers in Princess Anne County are advised to keep a close watch on their fields.

Three-cornered alfalfa hoppers have caused heavy loss in at least one county. They can be controlled with 1 pint of 50% malathion emulsion concentrate per 20 gallons of water, or 1 quart of 25% malathion emulsion concentrate per 20 gallons of water per acre. Apply with a boom-type, low-galage, low-pressure sprayer.

Clover root curculio larvae are another current problem. To protect alfalfa against them, apply 2.5 pounds of heptachlor, 2 pounds of Dieldrin, or 5 pounds of chlordane at the time of seedling next spring. Either sprays or granulated formulations may be used. Dieldrin will give protection for three years, the others only one year. Apply the insecticide on the surface and disk to mix the material thoroughly into the soil.

Granulated heptachlor and heptachlor in fertilizer treatments, for alfalfa weevils, also probably will help control the clover root curculio.

LIGHTING OF PULLETS DURING GROWING SEASON AFFECTS EGG OUTPUT

Poultrymen have long known that extra light in the hen house during the short winter days will increase the number of eggs laid. Now, recent studies indicate that it may be desirable to limit the length of time pullets are exposed to daylight during the growing season, and to increase the length of daylight as the birds get older.

In tests conducted in Alabama, pullets given 6 hours of daylight until they were five months old, with an increase of 18 minutes of light per week from then on until they were in production at 12 months, laid 41 dozen more eggs than pullets raised with 12 hours of light and given a 14-hour day after they started laying.

Likewise, studies conducted by one of the large feed companies showed that pullets hatched in November and January, and raised under limited light conditions laid more eggs than did the pullets raised under normal daylight conditions. Reducing the light to eight hours during the growing period delayed the laying of the first egg by 9 days, and seemed to slightly reduce the rate of growth.

A test at The University of Connecticut also helps to point out the effect that lighting might have on growing stock. In this test, September-hatched cross-bred pullets were kept under continuous light from 60-watt incandescent lamps from day-old through maturity. The treatment seemed not to harm the birds, but did stimulate the onset of egg production. All pullets reached 50% production at least three weeks before pullets not furnished continuous light.

Shortening of the day during the growing period from 6 to 8 weeks of age to maturity, with a gradual increase in light during the laying period, might offer some advantage to egg producers who can do it with a limited amount of expense.

A pullet that starts producing too soon is likely to lay more small eggs, and may not be as persistent in her production as one which matures a little more slowly. In recent years, especially since the advent of high-energy feeds, some growers have found for the growing stock from about 10 weeks of age to maturity, the limiting of the feed intake is done either by restricting the amount of feed given, or by adding fiber to the ration.

WHAT TO DO WITH LEAVES IN CURRENT LAWN PROBLEMS

The problem of what to do about the leaves on the lawn is a common one these days for home owners.

If the leaves are left on the lawn the grass will be killed. Serious damage to grass may result within a few days after the leaves fall. The safest plan is to sweep the leaves off the grass two or three times a week.

The much-talked-about idea of mulching the lawn with pulverized leaves appeals to many homeowners as an easy way out. This may save some of the labor needed to sweep and remove the leaves, but in most cases it will harm rather than save the grass.

If there are only a very few leaves, the leaf mulcher might be used. But in most cases the mulch left from the chopped leaves will smother the turf. Under certain conditions the pulverized leaves might do more damage than whole leaves.

PRICES REMAIN STEADY AT FEEDER CALF SALES

Prices have remained relatively steady throughout this season's special Virginia feeder calf sales.

In most cases the steer calves have averaged from $33 to $34 per cwt, with a few sales higher, a few lower. Weight has been an important factor in price, as most buyers placed more emphasis and demand on the calves weighing under 500 pounds. Grade also continues to be important to buyers. Place about a $1 per cwt spread between choice and good, and show less demand for medium grade calves. About $2 per cwt was taken off for the medium calves. The practical top on the light-weight, steer calves continues around $35 to $36, with some of the heavy-weight medium steer calves selling as low as $26 and $27.

Heifer calves sold steady during most of the opening sales, with the practical top on most of the heifers around $28 and $30, and some pens going to $31 and $32 per cwt. The spread in price between lightweight and heavy-weight heifer is less than for the heavy and light steers, but has been as much as $5 to $6 per cwt. spread between those weighing around 400 and those weighing around 500. Good grade heifers have averaged from $1 to $1.50 less than choice, with medium heifers fully $2 less than good grade heifers.

Most of the heifers have been going to Ohio and Indiana for feeding purposes, with few of them going for replacements and herd building. The $33 and $34 per cwt. average on steer calves in this fall's sales is about $9 to $10 higher than the average for the 1957 sales, when all the steer calves averaged $24.70. The heifer calves this year have averaged about $27 to $28 compared to $20.40 for heifers in the 1957 sales. The spread between the steer and heifer calves will run $5 to $6 per cwt. this year, as compared to $4.25 last year.

The last of the feeder calf sales for this year were held last week, November 6 at Colchester and November 7 at Staunton.

Seahawks' Year Concluded with Rousing Victory

The Virginia Beach High School Seahawks finished their 1958 football year with a rousing 41-0 victory over Windsor High School.

The Seahawks scored 19 points in the first quarter and went on to take their seventh conference victory of the year without a defeat in conference play. The Seahawks who are Group II, District one placed second in the conference behind unbeaten York who have more scheduled conference games than the Seahawks. York defeated Deep Creek 21-13, a team that Virginia Beach defeated in its opener 21-13.

Halfback Charlie Krummell, Norman Morse and George Chappell scored first period TD's to start the Seahawks scoring. Virginia Beach went on to build up the score with Chappell again scoring from 47 yards out. Chappell preceded his long score with a 45-yard run for a touchdown, but it was called back. Chappell, a junior, wound up the night with the most points and leading ground gainer.

Halfback Norman Morse, one of the outstanding players of the year, only was in the game for one play, a four-yard scoring run. Morse was injured in the Holland game. Virginia Beach will be losing seniors Tony Katsala, Bill Meredith, Charlie Krummell, "Skip" Jones, Norman Morse, Jim Walcott and Bill Halsey.

The football year has seen outstanding defensive and offensive line, fine running of the backs, excellent punting and passing. The years leading scores were by Morse and Jimmy Walcott. Outstanding defensive play was shown by the whole line with Center Bill Halsey, Tackle Tony Katsala and Freddy Derring doing outstanding work. Most of the quarterbacks were handled by junior Jimmy Jacobs with Euliche Kitchen backing him up.

Noting was handled by Fullback "Skip" Jones and extra points by Halfback Krummell.

The fine Seahawks team which had a fine 10-year in conference play was coached by George Topo and play assisted by Lam Cox and Robert Conlhard.

Norfolk Firm Low Bidder on Demolition

Bids were opened Tuesday at a meeting of the Princess Anne County school board for the demolition of the old section of the Kempsville school.

Low bidder was the Hall Wrecking Company of Norfolk, with a bid of $15,600. The board voted to award the bid to the company on a 60-day time limit basis.

Supt. Frank W. Cox said later that the site will be used for the construction of 16 rooms to house upper elementary students.

In other actions the board approved a request by the Baptist Church for the use of the Thoroughgood School for Sunday church services beginning Jan. 1. The school will serve as temporary headquarters for the church while a new church building is under construction.

Cox announced the resignation of five teachers, and the board approved the appointment replacement teachers. One additional teacher was approved for the Princess Anne Training School.

Appointed were: Mrs. Elsie Terester, 9th grade, Aragona; Miss Mary Jane Wood, 3rd grade, Bayside; Mrs. Vivian Affetto Coulter, 6th grade, Linkhorn Park; Mrs. Julia Walcott, English, Princess Anne High School; and William Price, Science, Princess Anne Training School.

Chamber of Commerce Elects New Board

The Chamber of Commerce announced Tuesday afternoon the election of the new Board of Directors for the coming year, beginning January 1, 1959. They are as follows: Richard B. Kellam, G. A. Brown, Fred A. Mayson, Annie Alexander, Nick Kotsopoulos, J. H. Midgett, Mrs. Lucy Trotter and W. A. Woods, III.

Certificate Awarded

Local Cancer Society Expands Public Education Program

The Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society has taken steps to expand their public education program under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paul Delinas. The goal of this expanded program will be to make the public more aware of cancer's seven danger signals, the importance of a yearly checkup, and what this unit can do as a health agency in the community.

Mrs. J. Geiger, sub-chairman in charge of cancer education in the schools, has distributed 2500 leaflets, "Cancer in Children," with the approval of Mr. Frank Cox, superintendent of schools.

For the first time in this area, the Princess Anne unit set up a display and distributed literature to the people attending the Methodist Church Bazaar. Through the cooperation of the Rev. Charles Kidd and Mrs. Harold Kellam, chairman of the bazaar, the Cancer Society was able to reach many people with this vital information.

On behalf of the board of directors, Mrs. Paul Delinas, president of the unit, presented Mr. Kidd with a certificate of appreciation for the Princess Anne Unit in recognition of his understanding of the importance of bringing this message to the public. Expressions of grateful appreciation were also extended to Mrs. Kellam for making this possible through the bazaar held on November 5th.

For information concerning displays, please contact Cancer Society office, GA 4-151.

Board Turns Down Motel In North Virginia Beach

Princess Anne — The county board of supervisors Monday denied an application to build a $400,000 motel in North Virginia Beach.

The application, filed by the Association for Research and Enlightenment, has been the subject of controversy in North Virginia Beach since it first came before the Princess Anne Planning Commission October 13.

Some 75 property owners in the area appeared to protest a change of zoning which would have made construction of the new motel possible.

The property lies on the west side of Atlantic Avenue between 67th and 68th streets.

Hugh L. Cayce, president of the association which proposed the motel, told the board that "thousands of people have come to Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach on account of the association."

Attorney P. B. White, who lives near the property, said the proposed motel-restaurant was strictly a commercial venture, "unlike previous uses and the residential character of the area."

After hearing nearly an hour of arguments for and against the rezoning, the board voted unanimously against it.

In other actions, the board denied a change of zoning from residential to general commercial of property fronting 100 feet on the north side of Virginia Beach boulevard between Chinese Corner and Davis Corner adjacent to Harrison Nursery. The applicant was the Cavalier Lumber and Building Supply Co.

The board approved the application of the "Aldo Corp." for a change of zoning from "limited commercial to general commercial" of a parcel of land located on the west side of Military Highway between Washington Avenue, Johnson's road and venue D, in the Bayside district.

News Digest

ROANOKE — Edward H. Rock, owner of the Sunset Manor Restaurant in Portsmouth, was elected president of the Virginia Restaurant Association at its convention here Tuesday.

Rock, who lives at Birdneck Point, Princess Anne County, has been active in the association for the past eight years. He is formerly a first vice president of the organization.

Members of the board of directors of the VRA who were re-elected included David Getzard, Linwood Burroughs and Henry T. Burroughs of Norfolk.

Walter Witt, executive vice president of the association, noted that the "three-day" convention began Monday heard a report on new cooking and serving methods for the modern restaurant. He said the restaurant industry is fifth or sixth in Virginia with $450 million spent annually by domestic and tourist guests.

He said one in six meals of the average Old Dominion family is consumed away from home and in the state's restaurants.

Sixteen boys ranging in age from 13 to 18 were charged with numerous offenses here, including the larceny of several automobiles and a series of break-ins.

Detective Sgt. R. H. Stone said the boys are from the Seateck and Atlantic Park areas. He said charges will be lodged against individual members of the group when "we figure out who did what." The offenses were committed during the past month.

Stone said members of the group which he could not readily identify took an automobile from Clark Chevrolet Corp. in the 400 block of 17th St. Virginia Beach, Saturday night. He said the car was demolished in a collision at Greer Neck Road during a chase by police which saw speeds of more than 110 miles an hour.

Three men were found guilty in the Princess Anne grand jury Monday on grand larceny charges arising out of a wave of dog thefts in the county.

Judge J. Davis Reed Jr. referred charges against James Buchanan of Seateck, James Wright of Seateck and General Williams of Seateck. General Williams was charged with the theft of a dog from the Princess Anne County Court.

Charges of a similar nature against Eddie Olds and Leonard Southouse, both of Seateck, were dismissed.

William Jackson Williams, 20, of Landstown, was charged in Princess Anne Monday with the knife slaying of Henry Burnham, early Sunday.

Burnham was located at Virginia Beach Hospital several hours after the slaying. He transferred to Norfolk General Hospital by the Virginia Beach - Princess Anne Rescue Squad. He was dead on arrival at the city hospital.

Detective R. L. Greenleaf said Williams was involved in an argument in the home of a man named McPherson. Williams allegedly stabbed Burnham with a very long knife, about four feet below the heart, Greenleaf said.

James Lamb, of South Norfolk, who read of the slaying in a newspaper story, walked into the police department Monday morning and said he was a witness. Detective Sgt. R. H. Stone said he said another witness, Noah Harvey, of North Carolina, also volunteered.

The Spoutwood Arms, one of the better known hotels along the waterfront, has been acquired by Wimborne and Sons, of Portsmouth, for a consideration in excess of $100,000.

Heretofore owned by the estate of Mrs. Alice A. Michael et al, the hotel was involved in a summer time visitors from Richmond and other sections of Virginia. It is three stories in height and contains 80 rooms.

Wimborne and Sons, owners of the Surf and Sand at Ocean View and the Waverly Motel on the Military Highway, began immediately a renovation program which will be completed in advance of the seasonal opening next spring.

S. L. Nusbbaum and Co., Inc., Norfolk realty firm, has been negotiating for the sale of the property which is located on 20th street and the Ocean Front.

Beach Firemen Buying Radio Monitor Sets

Proceeds from the annual Virginia Beach Volunteer Fire Department dance, Nov. 28, will go to buy equipment which will permit the organization to reach new heights of efficiency in communications.

Fire Chief E. B. Bayne said the department has spent more than $500 for 10 radio monitor sets which will be used by volunteer firemen.

The sets will enable the fire department "communications center to notify all members of the two organizations at the same time. Previously, the duty operator or members of the Ladies Auxiliary had to notify each member individually by telephone. The installation of this equipment further complicated this procedure, Bayne explained.

In addition to the new monitors, the department is installing a new 250-watt transmitter. This will give county-wide coverage for both fire and civil defense work. The old transmitter had only 50-watt capacity.

The volunteers hope to raise most of this money from the dance which will be held at Convention Center. Music will be provided by the Charles Niles Orchestra.

Tickets are $3 a couple and the dance will be limited to couples only. Tickets may be secured from

Sgt. R. N. Stone Heads Police Association

The Police Association of Virginia Beach held its annual elections meeting and dance at the Convention Center.

Det. Sgt. R. N. Stone, Princess Anne County Police Department, was elected president by the association's 400-odd members.

Other officers elected were Sgt. William E. Green, Suffolk Police Dept., vice president; G. A. Fortin, Chief, Naval Air Station Norfolk, treasurer; Leon Nowlitz, treasurer; Herbert Simpson, Portsmouth Civil Defense Coordinator, secretary, and J. M. Broughton, retired Portsmouth police chief, chaplain.

The meeting was preceded by a social hour and buffet luncheon at 7 p.m.

Fourth Annual Artists, Models Ball Slated at Cavalier Friday Night

One could only say after looking at the picture above "dig those crazy characters" followed by the thought where are they going! The answer is simple; they are going to the fourth Annual Artists and Models Ball on the 21st of November at the Cavalier Ballroom.

The ball will begin at 8 p.m. and last until 12:30 with music supplied by Elwood Duncan and his orchestra.

From the moment the costume contest step through the "gigantic stair, they will feel strictly "Hollywood."

Oscars will decorate the tables and caricatures of Hollywood stars will cover one side of the wall. Prizes will be given for the most outstanding costumes in connection with the theme and Mr. Tractor Robertson of WTAR will M.C. all the fun.

Mrs. Audrey Richardson is chairman of this year's event while Mrs. J. Frank East III serves as co-chairman. Tickets are $2.50 per person and may be purchased at the door or by mail to the door of the dance.

Traffic Safety Award Received By Chief Johnson

Monday afternoon at City Council meeting, Virginia Beach was presented a citation from the American Automobile Association for having gone three years without a pedestrian fatality. In making the award, traffic safety consultant George Elliott of the Tidewater Automobile Association said, "Virginia Beach has a good record over the years in traffic safety work."

During 1957, the year established as a creditable record by the AAA Annual Pedestrian Award Appraisal. There were no fatalities reported in the 10,000 to 15,000 population group among which Virginia Beach placed very high on the list.

The AAA Evaluation for Virginia Beach is based on a study that pedestrians should be made responsible to assume more responsibility for their protection and that drivers should be compelled to respect pedestrian rights-of-way. "Any effort to encourage motorists to give the pedestrian his rights should be made," said Elliott.

The consultant praised Virginia Beach's ability to cope with emergency pedestrian problems during the summer. "When the season is at its highest peak Virginia Beach has traffic problems of a major nature," he said. "But the city officials have handled these problems in a very small city these problems are handled in an amazingly successful manner. Every conceivable problem is solved with facilities for this achievement," with special commendation to Police Chief Reeves Johnson," he declared.

The Tidewater Automobile Association commends and rewards AAA pedestrian programs in various Tidewater cities. Now in its 15th year, the association is helping cities and states in the stock of their pedestrian situation and is a major force in the pedestrian safety program. The association's work has been well received by the public.

Indicated increase in the number of pedestrians has caused a reduction in the number of fatalities. Elliott told that the number of pedestrian deaths have been reduced 50 per cent from 1955 down to 7,500 in 1957.

Joy Fund Gifts Needed Now

Toys are being collected, food is being received, clothing and business apparel and preparations are underway by the Virginia Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce to make a happy Christmas for families in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

The Virginia Beach Junior Chamber is in need of gifts for the needy. The gifts are being collected last week by Boy Scouts and Army trucks from Port Stanley. The Junior Chamber is repairing old clothing and funds are beginning to come in. L. H. Clements, general chairman of the Joyce Joy Fund, has compiled a list as soon as the funds are received. A list will be published each week in years past of gifts needed.

Blk. Nevins, chairman of the registration committee, again stressed that applications to register for joy funds are available at the Virginia Beach and Free Press and must be submitted by December 10th.

Anyone wishing to donate money should mail their checks or money orders to Box 274, care of the Virginia Beach Post Office, or send them to WBOF, the Sun-News or the Free Press. They should be sent to the fire department.

Sidney S. Kellam Elected New Board Chairman

Edward H. Church, president of the Bank of Virginia Beach, has announced the election of Sidney S. Kellam to the chairmanship of the Board of Directors, effective as of November 14, 1958. The Board meeting was held Thursday night, November 13, Kellam has been a Board Director since the organization of the bank in 1945.

The new chairman succeeds his brother, the late Floyd E. Kellam, a judge of the 28th Judicial District.

Richard B. Kellam, attorney and partner of the firm of Kellam and Kellam, was elected a director to fill the vacancy created by the election of his brother to Chairman of the Board.

Kellam is widely known in this area and the State as a business man and civic leader. He is an active partner in the firm of Kellam-Eaton, Real Estate and Insurance.

The Board of Directors also declared a semi-annual 7 1/2 percent dividend payable December 5.

Dr. A. Purnell Bailey

Dr. A. Purnell Bailey to Preach In Scott Memorial Revival Services

The Revival Services, often termed Evangelistic Services, of the Scott Memorial Methodist Church of Oceana, will be held November 22-28, with services each night at 8 o'clock.

Guest minister for the services will be the Rev. Dr. A. Purnell Bailey, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, Richmond — one of the greatest churches in the entire Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Bailey served as a Chaplain in the U.S. Army in the Philippines and Japan during World War II. During his tour of duty in Japan, he made inspection tours of Nagasaki and Hiroshima, where the atomic bombs fell, accounts of which were written in both American and English periodicals.

Dr. Bailey preached for eight months in Tokyo, at the request of Dr. Kagawa. In addition to his regular services for the Army in St. Luke's Chapel, Tokyo, he baptized 33 young people into the Christian faith in this church.

In addition to his arduous duties as pastor of a great church, Dr. Bailey conducts a regular counseling service, associated with a physician. He also has a daily broadcast which originated on the Armed Forces Network in Tokyo called "Daily Bread." His daily devotional column, "Bread of Life" is syndicated internationally by General Features of New York.

This minister is well known in the Tidewater area of Virginia, having served pastorates in the Norfolk and Newport News areas, before going to Richmond.

After receiving his B.A. from Randolph-Macon College, he received his S.D. from Duke Divinity School and his Th.M. from Union Theological Seminary. His alma mater, Randolph-Macon, conferred upon him his Doctor of Divinity degree.

The names of Scott Memorial, the Rev. Francis H. Bailey, and the members of the community on Membership and Evangelism extend a cordial welcome to all of the people of the Oceana and Virginia Beach areas to attend these services. The messages of Dr. Bailey, delivered with simplicity, but with unique spiritual vitality will be uplifting and spiritually helpful to all who come.

Changes in Your Social Security

By EDITH KAY SUTTON
(Field Representative of the Norfolk Social Security District Office)

A recent article in this newspaper outlined the most important changes in the old-age, survivors, and disability insurance program brought about by the 1956 amendments to the social security law. Today, I shall discuss in more detail the changes that affect the dependents of disabled insured people.

Beginning with July, 1957, monthly benefit payments have been paid to qualified disabled persons. Until now, however, payments to their families could not be made until the disabled breadwinner reached age 65 or died before that time.

Insurance protection in the form of monthly benefits is now provided the qualified disabled person's children under 18 and any older child under a disability beginning before he becomes 18. Benefits are also payable to the disabled person's wife if she has in her care a child eligible for benefits. An estimated 180,000 dependents of totally disabled workers now on the beneficiary rolls can qualify for payments under this provision in the amended law. Since an application must be filed before benefits can be paid, persons receiving disability insurance benefits, and who have eligible dependents, should contact their district office. The district office serving this area is located at 229 W. Brambleton Ave., Norfolk, Va.

In my next article I shall discuss other changes in the law which affect dependents of retired or insured workers.

FORT STORY TELLINGS

STORY OFFICER PROMOTED TO TOP WARRANT GRADE

Department of the Army orders received at Fort Story Thursday have promoted the post's Personnel Officer, CWO Kenneth R. Ivey, to the Army's top Warrant Grade, Chief Warrant Officer, W-4.

The 34 year old Warrant Officer is a native of Arkansas. He was assigned to the Cape Henry post in May, after completing a tour of duty with the Headquarters of Allied Forces, Southern Europe in Naples, Italy.

He holds the Bronze Star Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

BEST MESS PLAQUE

GOING TO SGT. ANDREW DENNIS
Sergeant Andrew Dennis, Mess Steward for the 568th Transportation Company 10th Transportation Battalion was awarded Fort Story's "Best Mess Plaque" for October by Col. George E. Woods Jr., Fort Story's Commanding Officer.

Sgt. Dennis won the award for September as well, making it two straight months in a row.

Dennis in civilian life was a cook in the Merchant Marine. He entered the Army in 1940 and came to this Cape Henry Post in March of 1946.

Also present for the ceremony were Lt. Col. Joseph H. Morgan, Post G-4, Lt. Col. E. A. P. McCarthy, Commanding Officer of the 10th Transportation Battalion, and Maj. Mortimer H. Kuehn, Post Quartermaster and Capt. R. L. Bowens, Commanding Officer of the 568th T. Co.

BEST MARCHING UNIT

A 100-man marching unit from Fort Story's 10th Transportation Battalion was judged the "best military marching unit" in Norfolk's annual Veterans' Day parade.

The unit, made up of men of the 570th and 344th Transportation Companies, and the Headquarters Detachment of the battalion were commanded by Capt. Scott Berridge II, Commanding Officer of the 570th.

Competition for the winners came from Navy, Marine, Air Force and Coast Guard units.

The trophy awarded the winner was accepted at the parade by Lt. Col. George M. Folly, Assistant Chief of Staff (G-1), acting for Col. George E. Woods Jr., Commanding Officer of the Cape Henry Army post.

344th TRANSPORTATION CO. GETS NEW CO

First Lt. George O. Smith was named Monday to be the new Commanding Officer of one of Fort Story's DUKW (amphibious truck) companies.

Lieutenant Smith, formerly Executive Officer of the 344th Transportation Company, is a native of West Virginia, and a graduate of Marshall College in Huntington. He was recently integrated into the Regular Army from the active reserve corps.

The 344th is one of the units of Story's 10th Transportation Battalion.

FORT STORY BLOOD DRIVE

Fort Story's quarterly Red Cross blood drive was held Friday with the 10th Battalion's 570th Transportation Company leading all other units on the post with 71 volunteers out of 95 men present for duty.

Following in second place in number of volunteers was the 344th Transportation Company with 45. A total of 174 pints of blood were donated at the post from a total of 189 volunteers.

NEW ADJUTANT GENERAL

Special orders published at Fort Story Wednesday have appointed Army Capt. Joseph C. Duff as the post's new Adjutant General.

A member of the Army's Adjutant General's Corps, Captain Duff was formerly the Fort's Personnel Officer. He reported to Fort Story in June from an assignment in Tokyo, Japan.

A California native, Captain Duff attended high school in Inglewood, and has studied at Loyola University. He is a veteran of World War II, and holds the Combat Infantryman's Badge and the Bronze Star in addition to other decorations.

In his new position, Captain Duff replaced Maj. William R. Bennett who has been reassigned to the Transportation School at Fort Eustis to attend the Advanced Transportation Officers' Class beginning in January.

CWO Kenneth Ivey will take over the duties of Personnel Officer.

for This...we are Thankful

More than three and a half centuries ago, our forefathers came to the vast, trackless wilderness of the New World to seek freedom. They found it... and through sacrifices, hardships and hard work they founded a nation and established the high principles upon which it was to be built.

Since then — through civil strife, world wars, depressions and prosperity, and despite attempts to undermine the American way of life — we have held fast to the principles of our forebears.

We are Thankful... for the priceless heritage they left us — the freedom to live, speak and worship according to our own choice.

We are Thankful... for the freedom of the ballot — the right to elect the representatives of our government, to determine the form of that government, and the manner in which it shall be administered.

We are Thankful... on the Norfolk and Western Railway — for your friendship and good will, and the privilege of serving a great territory.

So, at this Thanksgiving, as we express gratitude for all of our blessings, we join with you in renewing our faith in the principles of our forefathers. With you, we pledge anew our determination to guard and perpetuate those principles of freedom, and to work with all the intelligence and energy at our command for a just and lasting peace among the peoples of the world.

The Church is the greatest factor in our life for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. (4) For the sake of the world, which needs his help and his prayers.

The MIXING BOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
 SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and fables... for practical, down-to-earth, and reliable and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Thanksgiving Meals Important

Add Corn Syrup and mix well. Add unbeaten eggs, one at a time; beat well after each addition. Put in a greased cake pan. Add remaining dry ingredients alternately with orange juice, mixing well after each addition. Gently fold in cooled fruit and nut mixture. Spoon batter into greased 1 1/2-inch cupcake pans. Bake in a slow oven (325°) for 25 minutes or until light brown. Makes about 4 dozen. When cakes are cool, cover with a thin confectioner's icing. Store in covered containers. These cupcakes will keep for a week.

Thanksgiving Day meals are among the most important of the year, for it is then the family gets together for feasting and frolic. Here are a few recipes that may prove to be happy surprises if placed before your guests:

Egg Nog Sauce (Makes 2 cups)

1 egg
 1 1/2 cups (15 oz. can) Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk
 1 cup (1/2 pint) heavy cream
 1/2 teaspoon rum extract
 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
 In top of a double boiler, beat egg-until foamy. Stir in Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk. Place over hot, not boiling water, 10 minutes. Remove from heat. Beat heavy cream until stiff; fold into egg mixture. Fold in rum extract and nutmeg. Fold cooked Eagle Brand mixture into whipped cream. Serve hot or cold. Good on waffles. If desired, sprinkle with chopped nuts, raisins, or candied fruit. Makes 2 cups.

Orange Holiday Cupcakes

2 cups sifted flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 cup finely diced, assorted candied fruit
 1 cup finely chopped pecans or walnuts
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/2 cup KARO Syrup, Red or Blue Label
 2 eggs
 1/2 teaspoon grated orange peel
 1/2 cup orange juice
 Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Drizzle fruit and nuts with 1/2 cup of the sifted dry mixture. Cream shortening and sugar together until light.

Cobbler-Cobbie Candy

2 cups Baker's Best-Sweet Chocolate Chips
 2 tablespoons raisins
 2 tablespoons chopped walnuts
 12 marshmallows, cut in eighths
 1 cup miniature marshmallows
 Melt chocolate and stir until smooth. Quickly mix in raisins, walnuts, and marshmallows. Spread on waxed paper and chill until firm. Then break into small bite-sized pieces. Makes about 25 pieces.

Bread Stuffing for your holiday turkey

It's unusual taste stems from the package of Lighten Onion Soup Mix that is included among the ingredients.

Southern Corn Bread Stuffing

4 cups corn bread cubes
 6 cups white bread cubes
 1 package Lighten Onion Soup Mix
 2 cups water, boiling
 1/2 pound sausage
 1/2 cup butter
 1/2 cup poultry seasoning
 1/2 cup chopped pecans, optional
 Cut breads in 1/2 inch cubes and toast under broiler or in hot oven. While breads are toasting, stir onion soup mix into boiling water and let stand for 5 minutes. Brown sausage in Dutch oven or large pot over medium heat, then add butter and water. Stir in bread cubes and soup mix. Cover and heat slowly 5-10 minutes to allow breads to steam, stirring occasionally. Add pecans. Makes 3 quarts stuffing sufficient for 10-14 pound bird.

After the Feast
 After that wonderful but "so much to eat" Thanksgiving dinner, there is always some turkey left in its wake. And you are left with the problem of creating a "something different" dish that the family will gobble up without realizing it is the remains of that well-picked bird. Creamed Turkey Royal is an elegant answer to your problem. It is delicately spiced with mace and ginger; creamy rich with butter and light cream; crunchy with silvered blanched almonds; protein high with big chunks of turkey and elegantly studded with broiled mushroom crowns.

Creamed Turkey Royal

2 tablespoons butter
 2 tablespoons flour
 1 teaspoon mace
 1 teaspoon ginger
 6 oz. can broiled mushroom crowns
 1 1/2 cups rich milk or light cream
 1 chicken bouillon cube
 2 cups cubed cooked turkey
 1 cup silvered blanched almonds
 Melt butter in top of double boiler. Stir in combined flour, mace and ginger. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly for about 2 minutes. Drain mushroom broth into saucepan, add milk and bring to boil. Dissolve bouillon cube in hot broth mixture and add to fast-flow mixture. Cook, stirring constantly until sauce is thick and smooth. Add cubed turkey, drained mushroom crowns and almonds, mixing well. Heat until piping hot. Serve with hot fluffy rice, tossed potato or noodles. Make as generous servings. All of these recipes sound real special -- to me. Hope you'll like them -- Bye now--

Global Skeet Shoot Slated Here in 1959

Lynnhaven — The newly opened Princess Anne Gun Club will be host next summer to the National Skeet Shooting Association's annual championship skeet shoot.

Some 500 of the world's greatest shotgun swingers will converge on the property known as the Anna and May farms, during the week of Aug. 24.

Selection of the American Olympic skeet shooting team is expected around the week of shooting for the world side.

Reuben F. Trent Jr., president of the Princess Anne Gun Club, received a letter Saturday from George W. White, manager of the national association.

White said the executive committee of the NSBA had voted to award the shoot to the Princess Anne club after considering bids from other clubs around the country.

The 1959 shoot will be the first world championship match held in the eastern United States since the early 1930's when they were held in Syracuse, N.Y.

In the main, shooters from the United States and Canada will dominate the entry list, but Mexico and some South American and European countries may also send their top shooters.

Running a shoot of the magnitude of the World Championships will require expansion of the present four-course range to a 24-course range.

Trent said four courses will be added to the present four on the Davis farm, where the administrative offices for the shoot will occupy the present clubhouse.

Immediately across Little Neck road another 14 complete courses will be built. These will be the location of the actual matches. The shot on the Davis farm will be as practice.

NSBA chose our club and were going to do everything possible to make them happy, so they'll want to return to the area."

For many years the world championship matches have alternated between Reno, Nev., and Waterford, Mich.

Trent explained that it requires a club of above-average size, or above-average expansion potential, to accommodate a world championship shoot.

He said he felt the shoot would be shot in the area to tourism in the Norfolk-Princess Anne-Virginia Beach area.

"Each shooter will usually be accompanied by three or four other persons, frequently members of his or her family. That would account for at least 2,000 people in here during that week."

Eastern observers have said a skeet shoot in the east would also pull thousands of spectators, a condition that does not prevail to that extent when the shoot is held in the western clubs.

Large Group Attends Scott Memorial Revival

A near capacity congregation attended the opening service of the Evangelical Services now in progress in the Scott Memorial Methodist Church of Oceana. The Sunday night service was one of unusual interest and inspiration, with the preaching of the Rev. A. Bursell Bailey, D.D., pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, Richmond, Va.

Nationally known radio, devotional minister and writer of the internationally syndicated newspaper devotional column, "Bread of Life," Dr. Bailey's message are characterized by a broad and deep spiritual insight coupled with the deep humility which this outstanding minister has maintained.

Adding to the inspiration and spiritual value of the services in progress during this week is the song service and the special music furnished by the choir members of Scott Memorial.

The pastor, the Rev. J. H. Stribley and the members of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism extend a cordial welcome to all of the people of this area to attend the services, which will continue each night through Friday at 8:00 p.m.

KEEP AMERICA BEAUTIFUL

Thank You Lord

By Ellen L. Kervan

Thank you is a word that is often carelessly used. It's a word that's thrown about and easily abused.

But there is no other word, That I can think to say, So thank you Dear Lord on this Thanksgiving Day.

Advertising Board, Chamber to Host Annual Meeting December 1

The annual promotional meeting sponsored by the Virginia Beach Advertising Board and Chamber of Commerce will be held December 1 at the Cavalier, according to Sidney Banks, chairman of the board's Advertising Board.

Banks stated that this meeting, which brings together promotional people and representatives of the transportation lines, is being expanded this year to a morning session, luncheon and afternoon session with speaker, Charles F. Nays, Department of Tourism, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the highlight of the day's agenda. Nays will outline Puerto Rico's spectacularly successful promotional program and relate its impact on the economy of Puerto Rico—illustrating his talk with exhibit pictures used in their advertising campaign.

Expressing pleasure over Nays' acceptance of this speaking engagement, Banks said, "It is quite a compliment of the resort and the Chamber of Commerce."

Artists, Models Ball Winners Are Announced

The annual Artist and Models Ball which is sponsored by the Virginia Beach Art Center, held last Friday night at the Cavalier Ballroom. Traflet Robertson served as master of ceremonies for the event. The theme of the ball this year was "Hollywood" and many varied costumes were represented.

Proceeds this year are to go towards the Art Center Building Fund. The affair was under the direction of Mrs. Aubrey Richardson, chairman.

The awards for the best costumes were given as follows:

1st prize—Scarlett O'Hara and Rhett Butler, Marguerite Pote and Jack Postell.

2nd prize—Hollywood and Vine, Mrs. Henry Morgan.

3rd prize—Frankenstein and his victim, David and Yed, Norwood.

4th prize—Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, Mr. Henry Morgan.

Most authentic award was presented to Mrs. Grayson Whitehurst for her costume of Charlie Chaplin.

The prizes were donated by the local merchants.

Bayside Joy Fund Gets Under Way

As the Christmas season approaches, once again the needs of the underprivileged and unfortunate members of our community are realized.

For the fifth consecutive year the Bayside Joy Fund is being sponsored by the Bayside Lions Club and the Little Creek Fire Department. Local donations would be acknowledged by publishing the donor's name in the Virginia Beach Sun-News, under the Bayside Joy Fund heading.

Last Saturday the Firemen of the Little Creek Amphibious Base collected three truck loads of toys to be refurnished for the underprivileged children of the area.

Those wishing to donate to this worthy cause are asked to make check or money orders payable to the "Bayside Joy Fund" and mail to either Gordon Hughson or George Lyon and Yed, Norwood, as acknowledged by publishing the donor's name in the Virginia Beach Sun-News, under the Bayside Joy Fund heading.

Let's get the "ball rolling" so that Christmas morning will not find a single child in our area without food or warm clothing and last but not least, no bare-headed child. Let us all agree—"It is not what we give, but what we share."

News Digest

Virginia Beach—A new, modern fire alarm system is being installed to go into operation at the Virginia Beach Volunteer Fire Department soon.

About 30 radio monitors of the size of portable radios have been ordered by Fire Chief E. B. Hesse for his 14 regular and 35 volunteer firemen.

The monitors are to be used in the firemen's homes. They will replace the wall of the big siren now located atop the Fire Department beside City Hall.

The siren will be used only if the monitors fail to get enough firemen to the scene of a fire.

Money for the new monitors, about $4,000—is to be raised by admission to the annual Firemen's Ball, November 29 at the Convention Center.

Princess Anne — The joyriding "Blackouts" will ride no more—at least for a while. Princess Anne detectives rounded up 12 of them last week.

Det. R. J. Hickey said the women face three charges of unauthorized use of an automobile, seven burglary charges and two petty larceny counts. All are Negroes.

The oldest of the "Wenches" group is Willie James Faley, 18, of 22nd street, extended, Princess Anne. The rest, except for one 12 year old, range from 16 to 17 and are from the Seaboard area.

The burglaries, Hickey said, were of one house and the rest stores and schools.

The youths style themselves the "Midnighters," the "Thunderbirds," or, their latest name, the "Blackouts." Detectives believe Faley is the group's leader, though the youth denied any organization.

Lewis Webb Jr. Speaks Before Cape Henry Club

The 1958-59 meeting of the Cape Henry Women's Country Club, Mrs. Leonard E. Hiteshey, President, presided.

At this meeting, the club voted to send Christmas gifts to patients of Eastern State Hospital, Williamsburg, Virginia.

The "Symphony of the Month," "Come Ye Thankful People, Come," was played by Mrs. F. H. Stribley.

The guest speaker for the meeting was Mrs. C. E. Kline, Choir Director of the Scott Memorial Methodist Church, Oceana.

Mrs. Elmer Tarrall, program chairman, presented the guest speaker, Mr. Lewis Webb Jr., President of the Norfolk Division of the college of William and Mary. Mr. Webb is a native of Norfolk and has been with the college for twenty-six years.

Lincoln Signed First Annual Thanksgiving Proclamation

Although Thanksgiving Day had been celebrated occasionally in America since early Colonial days, it remained for Abraham Lincoln, in 1863, to sign the first national annual Thanksgiving Proclamation, according to Dr. R. Gerald McMurtry, director of the Lincoln National Life Foundation. His signing of the document is depicted in the above painting, created by the nationally-known artist, Dean Cornwell. The scene is historically correct and shows Lincoln in his White House office just after he had completed his signature on the document. Lincoln's Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1863 marked the beginning of an unbroken series of proclamations, although there was some deviation as to date, by United States Presidents. Lincoln selected the last Thursday in November, which was the last feast day of the church calendar year. For a few years starting in 1939, the third Thursday was named. Since 1941, Thanksgiving has been observed on the fourth Thursday in November.

Virginia Beach Convention Center

Convention Center Exceeds Expectations First Year; 1959 Schedule Heavy

Virginia Beach, Va.—Since the opening of Virginia Beach's aluminum domed Convention Center on May 11th, 1958, it has more than fulfilled its purpose in serving as a convention hall and a city auditorium for community functions.

According to Richard Keeley, the Convention Director, and the Convention Center Committee, over 13,000 visitors have looked over the building and its facilities which occupies over 20,000 square feet on a block between 18th and 20th streets, beside from the visiting representatives from Berkeley, California, St. Petersburg, Florida, and Norfolk, Virginia.

May 12th through the 15th, The Association of Virginia Practitioners, June 2nd through the 4th, the 11th; Preaching Mission, March 1st through the 5th; State Brotherhood Baptist, March 28th-31st; Catholic Women's Convention, April 25th-28th; Atlantic Beauty Supply, April 18th-20th; Tidewater District Federation of Garden Clubs, April 29th; Brotherhood of Faithful, June 21st through 25th; Virginia Home Builders, June 24th-30th; Southern States Cooperative, August 6th; Holy Name Society, September 26th; Virginia Wildlife Association, October 10-11th; and the Fireman's Convention in August.

For 1959, six large groups are on the calendar at the Convention Center.

May 12th through the 15th, The Association of Virginia Practitioners, June 2nd through the 4th, the 11th; Preaching Mission, March 1st through the 5th; State Brotherhood Baptist, March 28th-31st; Catholic Women's Convention, April 25th-28th; Atlantic Beauty Supply, April 18th-20th; Tidewater District Federation of Garden Clubs, April 29th; Brotherhood of Faithful, June 21st through 25th; Virginia Home Builders, June 24th-30th; Southern States Cooperative, August 6th; Holy Name Society, September 26th; Virginia Wildlife Association, October 10-11th; and the Fireman's Convention in August.

Doctor to Replace Dr. Kato

The news of the pending departure of Dr. Kato from the Virginia Council on Health and Medical Care with disappointment. According to Edgar J. Fisher Jr., Council Director, Dr. Kato agreed to practice on Tangier for one year, and he completed his obligation last April. Mr. Fisher said, "We are grateful to Dr. Kato for the medical care he has rendered to Tangier during the past 20 months and realize that because of professional and financial reasons he feels it necessary to make a change. Realizing that Dr. Kato might leave, the Virginia Council has had its 'feeler' on informally for several months with the hope of finding a replacement.

Tangier's need for a physician came to the Council's attention in June of 1954 when the Rev. Oscar J. Rishel of the Swan Memorial Methodist Church on the island visited the Council's office in Richmond. It was then that the full facilities of the Virginia Council's physician placement service went into action in a nation-wide search of a doctor who might serve the island's 1,100 inhabitants. Dr. Charles Gladstone who had been on the island for some 40 years was elderly and wished to retire.

During the months that followed a number of physicians visited Tangier and several indicated an interest in practicing there, but none of them located. The absence of adequate and modern office facilities and housing were handicaps to Tangier.

It was in August of 1956 that the Virginia Council first learned of Dr. Kato's interest in Tangier. He was, however, in Japan and a delay of several years seemed sure before he could re-enter the United States. Dr. Kato had taken considerable postgraduate training in this country.

Working closely with Mr. Rishel, the full resources of the Virginia Council, along with their broad contacts, were used to help get a permit to let Dr. Kato re-enter the United States.

For several months prior to Dr. Kato's arrival the Virginia Council served as a clearing house for work that was done to build and equip a modern clinic. Funds were made available from Tangier's Town Council, the Golden Cross of the Methodist Church, from local citizens and from Paul Mallon's Old Dominion Foundation. The latter gave matching money to buy the most modern medical equipment available for the clinic. It provided funds to drill the first deep well water well for Tangier. The Richmond Surgical Supply Company furnished the equipment for the clinic at cost, and Tangier was given an advisory capacity on the design of the clinic.

Although the Virginia Council on Health and Medical Care has placed some 250 physicians throughout

Toll-Free Call To Norfolk In Effect Nov. 30

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia, will remove the toll charges for calls between the cities of Virginia Beach and Norfolk, effective November 30, on Sunday, November 30.

L. Floyd Patrick, Virginia Beach manager for the company, said this in keeping with a promise made to the State Corporation Commission, when it required a rate increase on January 1.

Virginia Beach subscribers to telephone service now have the ability to dial 10-000 stations in the territory served by the Garden exchange, but after the change they will have at their finger tips, the ability to call a total of 121,000 stations in the Virginia Beach and Norfolk exchanges, at no additional expense beyond their regular flat monthly rental.

Extensive construction was necessary to accomplish this feature of our service, Patrick said. It meant an addition to our new dial exchange at Virginia Beach to house the additional equipment and miles of additional cable had to be provided between the two cities.

Rates per month for Virginia Beach service effective with the bill rendered in December will be as follows:

- Individual Business Line . . . $7.00
- Two-Party Business Line . . . $8.00
- Rural Business Line . . . $9.00
- Individual Residence Line . . . $5.00
- Two-Party Residence Line . . . $6.00
- Four-Party Residence Line . . . $7.00
- Rural Residence Line . . . $4.75

"Four-party service outside of the base rate will carry mileage charges in addition to the above."

This forward step is proof of our desire to provide the very best type of telephone service to our customers in Virginia Beach, Patrick stated.

Pacific Ave. Improvement Under Way

Ground-breaking ceremonies marking the start of the Pacific Avenue improvement project were held yesterday morning with the Honorable Frank A. Dusch, Mayor, removing the first spadeful of dirt beginning the work.

Others present for this occasion were: R. R. McChesney, Reeves Johnson, E. A. Culverhouse, Paul H. Hatcher, Charles Kiley and Worth Petty and representatives from the contractors, Ames & Webb.

According to City Engineer Charles Kiley, the project will cost approximately $200,000 and will cost $100,000 to complete.

When completed Pacific Avenue will be four lanes from 17th Street to 24th Street, with a median and a lanes from 24th Street to the drainage.

Dec. 10 Day For Joy Fund Application

Everybody who wants to help the Bayside Joy Fund should apply by December 10th.

The Bayside Joy Fund is a fund for the underprivileged children of the area. It is being sponsored by the Bayside Lions Club and the Little Creek Fire Department.

Those wishing to donate to this worthy cause are asked to make check or money orders payable to the "Bayside Joy Fund" and mail to either Gordon Hughson or George Lyon and Yed, Norwood, as acknowledged by publishing the donor's name in the Virginia Beach Sun-News, under the Bayside Joy Fund heading.

Miss Luxford Speaks Before Oceana P-TA

Miss Louise Luxford, supervisor of instruction for Princess Anne County Schools, told the P-TA at their November meeting that she was very pleased to be invited to speak to the parents of the children in the public schools as well as better than that.

She said that parents should be encouraged to be more active in the school and to be more interested in the education of their children. She said that the school is doing its best to provide the best education possible for all children.

The next P-TA meeting will be held on December 10th at 7:30 p.m. at the school. The topic will be "The Future of Education."

Do You Know?

Attended the P-T-A meeting at Oceana Elementary School last Monday evening. Heard a wonderful talk delivered by Mrs. Louise Luxford, Princess Anne County Supervisor of Elementary Education. Sorry more parents were not there to hear this charming lady. She spoke on the topic, "Fundamentals for Today's Children." I for one am not too much worried now about the modern methods of teaching.

Downtown Oceana is getting to look more like "up town" every day. The much needed parking spaces have been supplied in the last week. There is a newly paved lot between McKenny's Store and Princess Anne Apartments. And a new paved addition to the Oceana Drug parking lot.

Won't be long until the Oceana business section will be all lit up with its Christmas lights and boliday. The Lions Club already have Christmas trees ordered.

N&W, Virginian
Railways Study
Merger Plans

The Norfolk and Western and Virginian railroads are undertaking to progress studies looking to the merger of the two properties. It was announced by Stuart T. Saunders, President of the Norfolk and Western, and F. D. Beale, President of the Virginian.

Both the N. & W. and the Virginian connect the southern West Virginia coal fields with the Port of Norfolk, where much of their coal traffic is handled. The two roads complement each other in the West Virginia coal fields and in large measure duplicate each other for several hundred miles in Virginia.

The statement added that "substantial operating economies could be effected by routing traffic interchangeably over the N. & W. and Virginian lines to take advantage of the modern yards and terminal facilities and more favorable grades of each railroad. Motive power and cars could be used more efficiently and duplicate facilities eliminated."

The announcement further pointed out that such a merger "will not adversely affect service to any important community, but will, in fact, improve it. This better service, coupled with resultant greater efficiency of operation, will be definitely in the public interest."

Merger of the N. & W. and Virginian would result in a new system having 2740 miles of road and 3870 miles of track. Together the two companies own a total of over $1,000 freight cars.

Last year the N. & W. and Virginian had combined operating revenues of over $157 million and combined net income in excess of $61.6 million. Total assets of the two lines are in excess of $300 million. At the end of 1957, long-term debt of the two companies aggregated $143.5 million, or 17.25 per cent of total capitalization.

Such a merger would require approval by the stockholders of the two lines and by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Boy Scouts Receive Instructions

Boy Scouts of Troop 62, of Oceana, receive instructions in use of hand axe from veteran Scout Leader H. E. (Eddie) Frizzell.

Oceana Boy Scout
Troop No. 62
Holds Meeting

By Robert J. Dumlak, Scribe
The Oceana Boy Scout Troop 62 met Friday night, Nov. 14th at 7:30 in the Scout Hall adjacent to Scott Memorial Methodist Church in Oceana. After inspection by our scoutmaster, Mr. Frizzell taught us how to sharpen an axe and hatchet; how to make a tent peg; how to carry an axe or hatchet; how to chop wood; and how to properly protect them when not in use. He also taught us the proper and safe way to pass the axe from one person to another.

All boys 11 years of age or over, are welcome to join Troop 62.

Changes In Your Social Security

By EDITH L. FORD
The Department of the Social Security Administration (DSS) has announced that the protection of children, before the recent changes in the law, however, older children who had not been legally adopted by an insured worker were often out of luck where social security is concerned.

The 1958 changes in the social security law now make it possible to pay benefits to more children and more widows. In the case of children, this results from the removal of the adoption provision in the old law in the case of widows, the removal of the adoption provision will also permit the payment of mother's benefits in most cases.

The requirement now is that the child be "adoptable" and be adopted by the surviving spouse within two years after the insured worker's death. If such a child was living in the worker's household as a member of the family, and was not supported by anyone other than the worker, the spouse or a social agency, he is now regarded for social security purposes, the same as the worker's own child.

In the case of the adopted child of a retired insured worker it is no longer necessary that the child have been adopted for as long as three years in order to be eligible for benefit payments. The 3-year restriction was put in the old law to guard against abuses through adoptions undertaken to secure rights to benefits. As adoptions are subject to court approval in the various States, however, Congress decided that this is a rare abuse, and removed the restriction from this law. Benefits are now payable to an adopted child immediately after adoption.

The amended law includes other changes which will be discussed in the next article in this series.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter David Barlow Miss Taylor, W. D. Barlow Wed in Double-Ring Rites

The marriage of Miss Beverly Jean Taylor and Walter David Barlow took place Sunday, November 2 at 2 p.m. in the Lynnhaven Presbyterian Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond C. Pittman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Taylor of Lynnhaven. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Barlow of Fayetteville, N.C.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of blue wool fashioned with a V-neckline and trimmed with a satin sapphire cummerbund. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Miss Charlotte Lynnette Taylor was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a tulle dress of beige print with matching accessories and carried a cascade of mahogany palms.

Demos Antoniou of Hartford Conn. was best man. The groomsmen were Ray Cardinal of New York and Foster Bolton of Wisconsin.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Educational Building of the church.

The couple are residing at 118-A 53rd Street, Virginia Beach, Va.

Miss Roudabush Becomes Bride of Carl Christian Jr.

Magnolia leaves, ivy and white chrysanthemums formed the setting at St. John's Baptist Church in Princess Anne for the wedding of Miss Judith Roudabush and Carl Leon Christian Jr.

The Rev. W. D. Meade officiated at the Sunday ceremony. Miss Little Bell Woodhouse played the wedding music and Mrs. Edna Gimes was vocalist.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Jurgensen of Princess Anne. Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Christian of Princess Anne are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Jurgensen gave his stepdaughter in marriage. The bride wore a floor-length gown of embroidered nylon which featured a bolero and tiered skirt. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was arranged into a pearlized crown and she carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by stephanotis and satin streamers. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Frances Whitehurst of Princess Anne was honor attendant for her sister. The bridesmaids were Misses Janet Johnson of Charlottesville, another sister, and Joyce Robinson of London Bridge. They wore street length dresses styled with velvet bodices and gathered tulle skirts. The matron of honor wore peach and the other attendants blue and their handkerchiefs matched their dresses. Their flowers were bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Mr. Christian was best man for his son. Groomsmen were Joseph E. Dennis Jr., brother-in-law of the groom, and Edgar Brown of Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Jurgensen wore a dress of steel blue silk with royal blue accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. The mother of the bride wore a dress of light blue silk with matching hat and corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Enjoy Thanksgiving—Through Safety

This Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, will start another long holiday weekend. While some of us will be making big plans to take a trip to other cities and towns to spend the holiday with friends and relatives, still others will be hustling about making preparations for guests coming to visit our fair city and enjoy with us the turkey dinner and get-together that Thanksgiving Day was set aside for.

While in this festive mood we should include one very serious thought—that of safety. Our Governor's Highway Safety Committee gives us the grim statistics of the number of Virginians who will die over this weekend on our highways. If you can only remember to exercise an extra measure of safety and caution perhaps you won't become just another number in this toll.

Here are a few of the safety tips offered by the Safety Committee and our law enforcement agencies to help us save our lives, and those of our loved ones: Dim your lights, both to the on-coming cars and the ones just in front; Don't exceed the speed limit; a few lost minutes can mean a life time; Be courteous at all times, it's contagious; Leave early and enjoy the scenery.

We would like to extend to all our citizens the wish for a very Happy and Joyful Thanksgiving and the hope that through courtesy, safety and caution we will all be here to enjoy more fully the Coming Christmas and New Year Holidays.

Give Thanks with Food

From the time of the first Thanksgiving, the day has been one of feasting. More than any other symbol, the Pilgrim realized an abundance of food spread upon the table reflected God's grace in granting survival.

Today, America's blessed abundance of food reaches far beyond our family tables. The labors of our farmers have been rewarded so bountifully that the Government holds vast stocks in reserve. By contrast, CARE reminds us, United Nations surveys show that only 1/6 of the world's people are well fed; 1/6 are adequately fed—and two-thirds, do not have enough to eat.

At this season of thanks and feasts, CARE asks us to express appreciation in the most symbolic way: by sharing our plenty with those who have too little. Every $1 donated to the annual CARE Food Crusade will deliver a 22-lb. package of U.S. farm foods to needy people in critical areas of Asia, Europe, the Middle East and Latin America—to underfed children and their parents, to orphans and refugees, the aged and sick.

The cost is low because the Government gives the supplies: milk powder, flour, cheese, corn meal. Not fancy foods, but even milk and bread are a feast for the hungry. Add the name and address of the donor go with every package, to make it a personal Thanksgiving offering. To give thanks by giving food, mail as many dollars as you can to: CARE Food Crusade, 1028 Connecticut Avenue, Washington 6, D. C.

YWCA Luncheon Concludes Series

The YWCA luncheon was held on Friday, November 21st in the Dunes Hotel dining room, and concluded the fall series. Mrs. E. B. Tankersley, chairman of the committee, presided from the speakers' table. The invocation was given by Mrs. T. Cornei Beyer. Mrs. Alfred Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Davenport, Mrs. Charlotte Russell of the Norfolk office gave short talks on what was at the beach and the next series of courses, which will begin in February. Mrs. H. H. Patterson gave an interesting discourse on bringing Y-Teen work to the beach and much interest was shown. Mrs. H. L. Lowe, Health Recreation chairman, was also present.

The exhibits showed the results of the wonderful instructors. In flower arranging several blue ribbons were awarded, among which were: Mrs. Harold Bender, Mrs. Guy DeFries and Mrs. A. A. Antrim.

The art work under the instructor, "Ved" Ryan, was outstanding, considering the length of the course. Millinery was expertly modeled by the makers, and no less so when they were not done by "dache," Mrs. Lewis Johnson and Mrs. Graydon Early were just an example. Ann Ellis, bridge teacher, said that all her students were "good" and gave orders for all to play! Mrs. Carl Barron, weight control instructor, presented each her students a unique diploma for their efforts in their "Battles of the Bulgies."

The luncheon was both delicious and successful under the special planning of Mrs. Weston Hampton of the Dunes and the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Wm. P. Kellam. Pink and white carnation corsages were presented to the speakers and instructors.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sun-News

Midnight of November 30th marks the magic hour of the lifting of the telephone toll on calls from Virginia Beach to Norfolk and outlying areas. The culmination of a lengthy and arduous endeavor on the part of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce Telephone Committee and other supporters in the community. To all who have made this toll free service possible the Chamber wishes to express its appreciation for their efforts toward the realization of a goal that will encourage closer contact between Virginia Beach, wherever a split of a second, and all substantially in the vicinity of this area.

The Chamber also wishes to thank the local management of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company for their cooperation.

Cavalier Garden Club Meets

On Wednesday, November 19th, 1968, the Cavalier Garden Club of Virginia Beach enjoyed a program on "Thanksgiving Tables" by Mrs. C. G. Boughman, speaker, and assisted by Mrs. Robert P. Maul and Mrs. D. Clark Jr., all members of the club.

Ribbons in the arrangement classes were won by Mrs. John Tyler Ellis, blue, and Mrs. H. W. Brown, yellow; Mrs. C. G. Boughman, Mrs. L. O. Clark Jr., Mrs. M. T. Tarrall, Mrs. J. W. Halstead Jr., red.

In the horticulture classes the following won recognition: Blue ribbons, Mrs. J. W. Wood, Mrs. H. W. Brown, Mrs. A. R. Cooke, Mrs. C. G. Boughman, Mrs. Carl M. Ray, Mrs. H. Douglas Stewart, Mrs. W. B. Costenbader, Mrs. Ida Mae Edmund, Mrs. Frank Tarrall, Mrs. James A. Perkinson, Mrs. J. W. Halstead Jr., Mrs. H. Douglas Stewart, yellow; Mrs. W. G. Saunders and Mrs. J. W. Halstead Jr., red.

The judges were Mrs. Wm. B. Lobuff, Mrs. Jerry Mallory and Mrs. Thomas Howard of the Linkhorn Park Garden Club.

First Recorded Thanksgiving Observed in Va.

The first recorded Thanksgiving Day in the New World was observed in Virginia. Early records tell the story.

The service took place at what is now Charles City County, Virginia, on the shores of the James River on December 4, 1619—one year and 17 days prior to the landing of the Pilgrims on that rocky New England coast.

A group of Englishmen sailed for Virginia (already a growing colony in the New World) from Bristol on September 16, 1619. Their objective was the establishment and settlement of a colony and Hundred at Berkeley. This is the present site of Berkeley Plantation and Harrison's Landing, some 25 miles southeast of Richmond.

The settlers were sent by the company which owned a grant of 6,000 acres in the area. Specifically, the first of a long list of instructions to the settlers from the company was:

"Impr we ordaine that the day of our ships arrival at the place assigned for plantacon in the land of Virginia shall be yearly and perpetually kept holy as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God."

The above instruction was taken from the papers of John Smith, one of the early colonizers of Virginia in whose library in Gloucestershire, England, the papers of the company were preserved. They were printed in the Bulletin of the New York Public Library of April, 1890, and in subsequent issues.

The colonists ship the "Margaret," loathed Virginia soil, what is now Hampton November 30, 1619. The ship then proceeded up the James past Jamestown, and arrived at the Berkeley grant on December 4, 1619.

Following their instruction, the party held a Thanksgiving celebration on that date—one year and 17 days prior to the landing of the Pilgrims.

John Woodliffe, an English merchant, was the governor of this party and led the first recorded Thanksgiving observance in America. The date on the present calendar would place the service about November 25, according to Malcolm Jamieson, present owner of Berkeley Plantation.

The following Autumn, 1620, another ship, the "Supply" arrived and brought an additional 50 settlers to Berkeley Town and, as far as is known, the group joined in this observance of Thanksgiving.

The celebration at Berkeley was short-lived. In March of 1622, an Indian attack wiped out the settlement. Only a 12-year-old boy is known to have escaped the massacre. The Indians, however, had reached other sections and had been perpetuated in Virginia.

Fort Story TELLINGS

TURKEY BOWL
Fort Story, Va. — Thanksgiving Day at Fort Story will feature a football "bowl" game between the post's two major subordinate commands, the 10th and 14th Transportation Battalions.

The game, dubbed the "Turkey Bowl" by Fort Story Special Services, will be the first meeting between the two teams since play began last month within the Transportation Training Command which included both Fort Eustis and Story. The two teams play in separate leagues.

The 10th Battalion goes into the game with the best record: three wins and one loss. All of its wins came by large margins. The team, shipped to the Army Hospital, 40 is 0, the 774th Transportation Group 48 to 0. All of the losing teams are from Fort Eustis. The one loss of the team came at the hands of Eustis' 20th Battalion 19 to 12.

The 14th Battalion has one win and two losses. Both of which came in the final seconds of the game. After winning over the Eustis' TROOP team 50 to 19, the 14th was defeated by the 27th Battalion 18 to 13 with the ball only inches from the goal line at the final gun. The other loss was sustained when Eustis' Headquarters Troop scored a TD in the final seconds to top the 14th 7 to 0.

The game has been scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Thursday morning.

FIRST AIR LIFT

Fort Story's first air lift was termed a success this week when more than 150 officers and men of the 10th Transportation Battalion were air lifted by helicopter to Fort Eustis and back to this Cape Henry port.

"Operation Air Lift" gave the troops training in air lift procedures and made it possible to utilize the Fort Eustis rifle range for their annual qualification in their basic weapons.

The 36th Transportation Company (Light Helicopter), under the direction of Captain Charles L. Smith, of Fort Eustis made the air lift.

UNIT RETURNS HOME
Fort Story's 565th Transportation Company returned Friday, November 21 to the Cape Henry Post from Sondrestrom, Greenland where the unit had spent six months in the annual Arctic resupply mission to the warning stations in the Arctic.

The unit, commanded by Captain George Schmaltz, is the last of five Fort Story organizations to complete its mission. It departed Fort Story in April.

The company arrived at the Hampton Roads Army Terminal in the afternoon aboard the LST "Rushmore."

The four other units that have returned to Fort Story are the 165th, 417th and 854th Transportation Companies, and the 564th Transportation Platoon (BARC).

Fort Story's 34th Transportation Company has a new company commander effective Friday. Captain Jerry B. Thonny, newly arrived from Sondrestrom, Greenland, will assume the command of the amphibious truck (DUCK) organization.

In charge of command ceremonies 14. McCleave was congratulated for the performance of his unit during the year he has been in command. He will assume a staff position in the 244th parent organization, the 10th Transportation Battalion.

Captain Thomas has previously commanded the 612th and the 491st Transportation Companies, and has served on the staff of three battalions, the 376th, 14th and 10th. He recently returned to the post after serving as Operations Officer for the 165th Transportation Company during the summer resupply operation.

Youth Injured In Car-Bicycle Mishap Here

A small boy, struck by a car on Atlantic boulevard shortly after 4 p.m. Friday had X-rays taken of his head Saturday at Virginia Beach Hospital. Although he apparently was not seriously injured.

Johnny Parnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Parnell Jr. of Cavalier drive and Lane Shore drive, was riding his bicycle at 55th street and Atlantic when he was hit by a car police say was driven by Wade Thomas Furick, of the 100 block of Ave. E.

Officer Kermit Wood, of the Virginia Beach Police Department, off duty at the time, reached the accident scene shortly after the 10-year-old was hit. He called the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Rescue Squad, and county police.

The youngster, whose shoes were knocked some distance away by the impact, was unconscious for a few moments. When he regained consciousness he asked bystanders, who had covered him with their coats, "What hit me?"

The boy was given emergency treatment for shock and bruises at the hospital, then sent to his home. No charges have been placed against the driver of the car, according to Princess Anne County Police Chief J. E. Moore. County officer Clark Whitehurst investigated the accident.

New Bridge Is Proposed for Great Neck Rd.

An 890-foot highway bridge is planned for construction over Long Creek and Beach Canal, about 1 mile upstream from Lynnhaven in Princess Anne County.

The one bridge would replace two existing bridges now crossing these waterways on State Secondary Route 615.

The proposed bridge would be 31 feet wide and over Long Creek would provide a horizontal clearance of 40 feet and a vertical clearance of 20 feet at mean high water.

Over Beach Canal, the horizontal and vertical clearances could be 60 feet and 35 feet, respectively, at mean high water.

The existing bridge crossing Long Creek is a swing drawbridge providing a horizontal clearance of 19.5 feet and a vertical clearance of 5.5 feet at mean high water under the closed draw.

The existing bridge crossing Beach Canal is a fixed structure providing a horizontal clearance of 38 feet and a vertical clearance of 12 feet at mean high water.

The Department of Highways has requested approval by the U.S. Army Engineer District in Norfolk. A notice by Col. O. J. Pickard, district engineer, requests that all who may have valid objections file them in his office by Dec. 19.

Escapes from East Germany and other satellite areas are still arriving in West Berlin and Germany at the rate of 4,000 a week. American aid reaches many of these refugees through contributions to the CARE Food Crusade, New York 16, N.Y.

4th Annual Tax Conference Set For December 13

Williamsburg — Taxation, both on the state and on the local level, will be the topic of the day at the Fourth Annual Tidewater Tax Conference to be held at the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club in Norfolk on Saturday, December 13, 1968.

The event will be sponsored by the College of William and Mary in cooperation with the Norfolk-Fortsmouth Bar Association and with the Tidewater Chapter of the Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants.

The conference will provide accountants, attorneys, and other professional and business groups with material relating to tax returns, procedures, and policies.

Gov. A. B. Rouse III will address a group at the conference luncheon. The program emphasizes for the day will be on the new tax law, known as the Technical Amendments Act of 1968, which was passed September 2, 1968.

Eleven attorneys and accountants will present the technical portion of the program.

Joseph Curtis, professor of law at William and Mary, will head the session on the new legislation and return forms. The legislation will be analyzed from the standpoint of small business tax revisions, of non-business amendments, and of amendments affecting individuals and corporations.

Other speakers at the session on new legislation will be Jay M. Ball of Norfolk and A. Robert Doll of Louisville, Ky. Both men were formerly with the Chief Counsel's office on the Internal Revenue Service at Washington. Mr. Ball is now with the firm of Howard and MacMillan in Norfolk; and Mr. Doll is a 1951 graduate of the William and Mary law school, receiving national consideration for recognition by winning at the age of 31 a favorable decision from the Supreme Court in a tax case.

Changes in tax laws will be presented by Joseph V. Anderson of Norfolk, who is associated with the firm of Yarbrough, Parsons, Kyle & Hyatt.

Dr. Thomas C. Atkinson, professor in taxation at William and Mary, will head the session covering the averaging provisions of the Code as affected by the new legislation. Others speaking at the session will be Jack V. Place of the firm of Apollonius, Place & Apollonius of Roanoke; Vance C. Gregory, professor of accounting at the Norfolk division of William and Mary; and J. B. Hall, of the firm of Curtis, 14 Kallan in Norfolk.

Also speaking is the technical portion of the conference will be Allen C. Tanner of the firm of Bennett, Smith & Co. of Newport News; John S. Quinn, assistant professor business administration at William and Mary; and William T. Prince, lecturer in law at the college.

The planning committee of the conference includes Linwood H. Tate, president of the Norfolk-Fortsmouth Bar Association; Robert D. Daniel, president of the Tidewater Chapter of the Virginia Beach-Norfolk-Carroll Public Relations Society; Lewis W. Webb, provost of the College of William and Mary; and Professors Curtis and Atkinson.

BAYSIDE LIONS CLUB

The Bayside Lions Club held their regular dinner meeting Wednesday night, November 19, at 7:30 p.m. at Shore Drive Inn. Eugene Caldwell, first vice president, presided.

Caldwell reported to the club on District 24D twelfth annual conference held recently at Virginia Beach. According to Caldwell, the conference was well attended and was a big success. The principal speaker was Thomas G. Basil, a Lions International Director from Annapolis, Md., who gave an inspiring talk on Lionism.

John Abelson, second vice president, reported that all committees were active in preparation for the club's annual Turkey Shoot. He appealed to the members to push the sale of tickets for this event. Ivan D. Mago introduced the guest speaker, J. C. Morris, executive secretary of the Chesapeake Bay Ferry Commission. Mr. Morris spoke to the club about the proposed Bridge-Tunnel over Chesapeake Bay. He said that progress is being made in the planning of this multi-million dollar project. He said that the crossing will consist of two tunnels and two bridges with a trestle connecting them. The crossing will be about 17.5 miles in length extending from the southern tip of the Eastern Shore to a point in the vicinity of Chesapeake Beach. The estimated cost will be $14,000,000 and the bond issue will be about $20,000,000. The crossing will be designed to handle a great volume of traffic at a good speed and the tunnels will be equipped with the latest type of ventilation.

59 Ford Fairlane 500 Club Victoria... one of the 19 new Fords that ride on TTYRE cord tires.

Ford beauty pays you extra dividends in comfort

Plenty of leg room... There's plenty of stretch-out room, in both front and rear seats—even for long-legged six-footers.

New head room—even hat room... Ford is spacious. Unlike the major competitor you can wear your hat, front seat or back.

6 Passengers, not just 4, ride in comfort... Ford's seats are softer, thicker. And the man in the middle doesn't "bottom out" on bumpy roads as in many other cars.

Wider doors for easier entry... Ford doors are wider than the top competitive make... and have convenient 2-stage door-checks.

Easy to use trunk space... Ford's deep-cut trunk opening lets you load or unload with far less "lift" than competition.

A frame that surrounds you with safety... Every ride within the protection of Ford's solid wide-base frame. You will not get this protection in any other low-priced car.

Wins Award

PTT, SCOTT BROWN

Cherished Award Won by Local Soldier in Germany

This story was taken from a two-page report in the Berlin Observer of November 7th concerning Scott Brown whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, reside on 51st Street.

One of the most cherished peace-time awards the Army makes, the expert Infantryman Badge, was bestowed on Pvt. Scott Brown, of Virginia Beach, one of 30 members of the 2nd Battle Group last Tuesday at a retreat parade on Ringstrasse, Germany by their commanding officer, Colonel William F. Kernan.

These 30 professionals were the survivors of 92 officers and enlisted men who attempted the week-long test.

Between October 16 and 25 an ever-diminishing number of candidates were tested on the 14 Infantry skills which comprise the EIB course. Designed to give official recognition and competitive spirit to outstanding Infantry soldiers, the tests are given annually in Berlin command.

Not everyone is eligible for the EIB program. Candidates first had to meet certain standards, including a conduct rating of excellent, as well as a qualification as expert with the bayonet and sharpshooter with their primary weapons.

Setting the pace from the start, D Company dominated the EIB course, finishing with the highest number of passing candidates, 18 out of the 30 qualified. Four of the top five finishers, First Lieutenants Thomas Williams, Mark Reese Jr., Second Lieutenant Edwin King and Sergeant Bobby Poe were D Company personnel as well.

Perhaps the most remarkable, of those who finished was Private Bowtie Scott Brown of Virginia Beach, another D Company entrant. Only 18 years old, Private Brown is now EIB qualified while having seen only seven months service. He received a copy of 2nd Battle Group orders promoting him to Private First Class, effective November 7, from Colonel Kernan. Together with his EIB Certificate, "It is truly an outstanding accomplishment for a soldier so young to qualify for the EIB," added Captain William V. Cash, D

Local Postmaster Gives Pointers on Christmas Mail

Postmaster Myers of the Virginia Beach post office today outlined ten basic pointers for users of the mails to follow in order to assure prompt and safe delivery of their Christmas cards and gifts this year:

1. Address mail fully and clearly. Write legibly or print plainly and always use zone numbers for zoned cities in the address and return address. Avoid abbreviations since this may lead to confusion.

2. Use the 4-cent letter rate on Christmas cards. Be certain a return address is printed in the upper left hand corner of both Christmas cards and parcels. This will prevent any undelivered mail prepaids at the letter rate ending up in a dead letter office. Buy stamps early to avoid waiting in line later.

3. Do not enclose coins or hard objects of any kind in letters. Canceled machines cannot process such letters and often damage the letter and contents.

4. Do not mail money in Christmas gifts or letters. For safety's sake, use postal money order or checks.

5. Separate your letters to "local" and "out-of-town." This will speed all the mail and relieve much of congestion in post offices.

6. Make certain that parcels are well packed and securely wrapped in strong containers. Crumpled material, such as excelsior, shredded newspapers or tissue paper should be evenly firmly placed on all sides of the Christmas gift. The carton should be wrapped in heavy paper and securely tied with strong twine.

7. Gifts of a delicate nature, such as glass, china, electrical appliances, radios and musical instruments, must be marked "Fragile" by the mailer. Food stuffs should be marked "Perishable" if subject to spoilage.

8. Insure parcels. Register letters of real value. Where only proof of delivery is required for letters of no intrinsic value use Certified Mail. Use Combination Mail where a letter or message—other than a gift tag—is to be enclosed inside a Christmas package.

9. Mail Christmas cards and parcels early to avoid the last minute rush and waiting in line at the post office. The best times to avoid crowds at stamp windows in most post offices are before 10 A.M. and between 1:30 and 3:30 P.M.

10. Every postal employee is happy to answer questions on postal rules and regulations. Ask a post office for the free pamphlet, "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels for Mailing."

The Postmaster again emphasized how important it is to start planning now to shop early and mail early for Christmas.

"Our loyal and dedicated postal employees, whose efforts during Company Commanding Officer. All the candidates agreed that the tests are difficult, but are just as sure that the prize is worth the effort. Rating as an expert in their profession — Combat Ready Infantryman — considered by the EIB winners as a tough honor to win.

Private Brown is certainly a fine example for our youth to follow.

INCORPORATED

A NEW SERIES in the 1959 Ford line—the Galaxie—captures more of the taste and styling flavor of the Thunderbird than any other Ford model. Compared here, the Galaxie Town Victoria in the foreground bears a strong resemblance to the 1959 four-passenger Thunderbird—especially in the roof area, yet it is priced to sell only $48 above comparable models in the Ford Fairlane 500 series. The new luxury series includes six different body styles and will be available at Ford dealerships in early December.

Census Bureau to Collect Information
On Car Radios

Information on the number of privately-owned passenger automobiles equipped with radios in working order will be available for the first time as the result of special questions to be asked in the November Current Population Survey. It was announced by Supervisor Joseph R. Norwood of the U.S. Census Bureau's Regional Office at Charlotte, N.C., which will participate in the survey.

Two other questions on radio ownership will be asked in the survey. One of these questions will seek information on the number of households in the United States with radio sets in working order, including portable sets. The other question will cover the location of these sets such as living rooms, kitchens, etc.

This is the first time since 1950 that information on household ownership of radio sets has been collected by the Census Bureau. In that year, households reporting radio sets numbered about 40 and 1 million. This represented a ratio of more than nine out of ten households. Cost of the radio survey has been underwritten by the Advertising Research Foundation.

The radio questions to be asked in November will be in addition to the usual inquiries on employment and unemployment which are asked each month in the Current Population Survey. The information will be collected locally by Mrs. Daisy E. Wilkey.

Ford Introduces New Line Nearly Year Early

Ford Division announced today—nearly a year ahead of schedule—a new series of automobiles that will sell for only $48 above regular Ford Fairlane 500 prices, but have a strong resemblance to the four-passenger Thunderbird—especially in the roof area.

Called the Galaxie, and originally a part of Ford's 1960 styling plans, the new luxury series contains six different body styles. To bring the Galaxie series to the market early, engineers, tool makers and product planners worked night and day and week ends in top secrecy. The Galaxie required more than a hundred different dies to make more than 50 unique parts and assemblies.

The Galaxie series comes in a two-door sedan, a four-door sedan, two-door hardtop, four-door hardtop, a convertible and a respectable hardtop.

In addition to the Thunderbird roof line, the Galaxie offers Thunderbird-flavored interior with quilted and pleated fabrics over tailored seats, a new molding over the safety twin headlights, different fender ornaments, a modified instrument panel, a two-tone steering wheel, added chrome interior trim inserts and seat side shields. There are seven interior color selections. "Galaxie" script appears on the quarter panels and the instrument panel.

The suggested list prices, which are $48 above comparable models in the Fairlane 500 line, start at $2,303 for the two-door, six-cylinder sedan. The prices are lower than any luxury models in the low-price field.

Production of the vehicles started November 17 at most Ford Division assembly plants. The cars go on sale at Ford dealerships in early December.

Reopens Tidewater
Area Division

Richmond Steel Co., Inc., has announced the opening of the new plant and office here to serve the rapidly growing Tidewater area. This division will be responsible for the sales, fabrication and erection of structural, ornamental and miscellaneous steel and sales of steel barges.

The firm has offices and plant adjoining railroad siding at 820 West 21st Street.

R. M. Ludwig, graduate structural engineer previously with The Rust Engineering Company of Pittsburgh, is manager of the Tidewater Area Division. A. K. Norberg, formerly with Jefferson Fabricated Steel Corp. in Norfolk, is associated with the new office as Chief Estimator.

Richmond Steel Co. formerly had offices here from 1910 to 1927, and during that period furnished and erected the structural steel for the Cavalier Hotel as well as many other structures in the area. The company has recently diversified its many activities to include the building of steel barges, and currently, ranks among the foremost barge builders on the Atlantic Seaboard. Among its many customers has been the Southern Materials Company, leading supplier of concrete and concrete products in the area.

A spokesman for the company stated that the Norfolk Area Division was reopened because of the steady growth in the area, and the unlimited potential for continued expansion and development in the future.

Charles L. Williams has just succeeded his brother, Carter N. Williams III, as president of the firm, with latter stepping up to the post of Chairman of the board, Thomas N. Williams, another brother, is now executive vice president.

second in the series of card parties sponsored jointly by the residential and international relations departments of the Woman's Club. The party will be held at the home of Mrs. William H. Morris, 300 Blackbeard Rd., Baylake Pines. Other hostesses will be Mrs. U. L. Harmon and Mrs. H. E. Monum. Proceeds from these parties are given to the Virginia State Federation project of "CARE" for Vietnam. Preceding the card party, Mrs. E. Burford will present briefly a slide program of her trip to Mexico.

In closing the meeting, Mrs. Fulford announced that Mrs. Herman Yaffey would be present in December with a program of "Christmas Ideas."

Hope you're enjoy your Thanksgiving Day - Whatever you're doing - wherever you are.

Don't you might be planning a Coffee Party before long and I'd share with you the above suggestion.

If you're having friends in for Sunday afternoon or evening - here's a recipe for "Sunday Breeze" - but do make it on Saturday. This delicious bread - full of apricots, raisins and nuts is made in a jiffy and sliced next day - "Sunday Breeze" and lots of fresh, hot coffee - just the thing for a leisurely - loving - treat for friends - toast it - and yummy - yum - you'll surely say - it's so good.

Sunday Bread

- 2 cups biscuit mix
- 1 cup rolled oats, uncooked
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 cup snipped dried apricots
- 1 cup golden seedless raisins
- 1 cup broken walnut meats
- 1 egg, well-beaten
- 11 cups milk

Combine first five ingredients by stirring (do not sift). Add fruits and nuts. Combine egg and milk and mix in. Beat hard with a spoon for half a minute. Spoon into greased 11 quart casserole. Bake in moderate oven, 350° for 50 to 60 minutes. Cool in casserole 10 minutes; then remove to rack. Cool. If desired, frost with a thin confectioners' sugar icing. Do not slice until the day after baking.

But you're wished you could think up a real desert master piece to serve - well here it is -

Velvet Cheese Cake

- 1 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 1 package zwieback, crushed
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon peel
- 2 lbs. cream cheese (bought in bulk)
- 15 cups granulated sugar
- 3 tablespoons flour

A Dream of a Dessert
For a Coffee Party

NOW that the hot summer months are gone, coffee parties are in full swing again. It's time to bring out your best china, fill the coffee pot to the brim and entertain a few of your closest friends. For something very special and incidentally, very French, why not try this simple recipe for French Coffee Mousse.

Here's a perfectly delicious dessert that has a deep coffee flavor and is just as creamy as a mousse should be. The secret here is you can make it in the morning, pour the coffee-cream mixture into fluted machine cups and freeze in your refrigerator. Then, when you are ready, simply turn out your individual desserts and serve them with chocolate sauce. This is the way to entertain - with little effort and quite a bit of glamour!

French Coffee Mousse

- 1 cup whole milk
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup instant cold coffee
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 1 cup chopped walnuts

Heat milk and cream until thick and pour into a double boiler. Add sugar and coffee. Cook over hot water, stirring until mixture coats spoon. Cook 10 min. in "whipped cream" stage. Pour into 12" in diameter, 2 1/2" fluted paper cups. Fill with cream mixture. Sprinkle with chopped walnuts and freeze. Remove from freezer. Let stand 15 minutes. Turn out. Yield 12 to 16 servings. This may be kept for three or four days in the refrigerator. -Bye now-

VIRGINIA RANKS HIGH IN DHIA RATION
Virginia ranks eighth in the United States in the number of cows enrolled in Dairy Herd Improvement Associations.

A recent U. S. Department of Agriculture release showed that California, with 208,778 cows on test ranked first with a safe margin of nearly 50,000 cows. In second place came New York with 129,061 cows, followed by Pennsylvania with 105,446, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois and Michigan ranked ahead of Virginia with her 44,800 cows on test.

Production-wise, California took first place with a record of 10,885 pounds of milk per cow. There were 23 other states ranking below California and above Virginia, where the average production was 8,466 pounds of milk per cow. Butterfat production laurels went to California and Washington.

which tied for first place with 428 pounds of butterfat per cow. Virginia ranked 20th in butterfat production per DHIA cow, with 377 pounds.

Although Virginia ranked lower in production than the northern, north central and western states, she did lead the South in all categories.

INCOME AFFECTS USE OF SOME DAIRY PRODUCTS

Income has a major effect on the use of some dairy products, but not so much on others.
A U. S. Department of Agriculture survey shows that the use of fluid cream and butter increases most rapidly as income per family goes up. The families with income averaging about $8,000 a year use at least twice as much fluid cream and butter as those earning only $3,500 a year, the survey showed.

The use of cheese and ice cream is only moderately greater at the highest income levels.

The survey also showed that high incomes do not insure high use of fluid milk. For families earning $4,500 or more, the level of income has little effect upon the amount of fluid milk used. At the lower end of the income scale the amount of income has a significant effect. A recent study indicates that income has an important effect in the South up to at least the $8,000 income level, although this effect is less at high income levels. The study points out that an increase in income of 10 per cent results in a 2 to 3 per cent in fluid milk use.

ARTIFICIAL BREEDING TAKES BOME GAMBLE OUT OF DAIRYING

Dairymen can take the gamble out of their breeding program by using artificial breeding.
It is possible for a dairymen to waste 8 to 10 years if he depends on his own choice of bulls.

For instance, because of the complex nature of inheritance, the young bull you have been using or are planning to use could be a sad disappointment even though his sire and dam are outstanding. If he is a dud, it will take about four years after breeding time before his daughters will have completed records. If the daughters are disappointments, and they are bred in turn to another unknown bull, it will be another four years before you know what their daughters will do. Even if these next daughters are good, it has taken eight years or more. If they are poor it will take another four years to correct your mistake in selecting your sire.

It's only good sense to depend on carefully selected proved sires such as those available from the artificial breeding organization in Virginia. Even when using bulls from artificial breeding, several bulls should be used. Don't select one, or a few sires, until their daughters are milking and you can see how they look and do.
Most Grade A dairymen are breeding artificially. Some are not. With the advances made in semen handling and other practices in artificial breeding, no dairymen has a good reason to use his own bulls entirely. If a dairymen has only a few cows, it is foolhardy to try to breed his own unknown bull. Dairymen can have the service from proved sires in artificial breeding organizations, even in areas where there is no technician. VPI has short courses in the spring and fall for dairymen who want to learn and use artificial breeding techniques.

BE ON ALERT FOR SHIPPING FEVER

Watch out for a fall season "hitch-hiker" which may ride in with the movement of cattle and sheep from pastures to feed lots.

That's the advice from VPI specialists who say that the unwelcome "guest" in shipping fever which annually takes a toll of around $25,000,000 among cattle producers alone. The disease acts on the animals somewhat like flu in human beings.

Authorities are continuing their research on shipping fever. They believe that the stress of shipment, including fatigue, crowding, and irregular watering and feeding, increases the susceptibility of the animals. Symptoms include a high fever, rapid breathing, complicating pneumonia, cough, and reduction or loss of appetite.

Since the disease is infectious, newly arrived feeder stock should be quarantined for a time so animals in the home herd will not be exposed. They should be given quiet surroundings, good shelter, plenty of good water. If shipping fever develops, call your veterinarian.

NEW LIMA BEAN VARIETIES DEVELOPED BY SCIENTISTS

The long search for disease-resistant lima bean varieties is beginning to pay off.

For years, scientists at the Virginia Truck Experiment Station at Norfolk have cooperated with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in national lima bean trials. In 1956 the Nemagreen variety was released to seedmen. It is resistant to root knot nematodes and has been reported to outyield greatly the common commercial varieties when nematode infestations are serious. The average yield of Nemagreen during the four-year trial at Norfolk in nematode-free soil was essentially the same as yield of the popular varieties Clark's Bush and Early Thorgreen. The pods and beans of the three varieties are practically identical.

Last January, USDA released the new baby lima variety Thaxter to seedmen for seed increase. Thaxter is highly resistant to downy mildew and promises to be very useful in areas where this disease is a problem. In Norfolk trials, where no downy mildew was present, Thaxter yielded about the same as the standard commercial varieties. It is similar in appearance to the other baby limas, but matures a few days later than Clark's Bush at Norfolk.

It seems that trial plantings of Nemagreen will be worthwhile for growers who are troubled with nematodes, and that growers who expect downy mildew to be a problem would do well to try Thaxter on a limited acreage when seed becomes available. If nematodes or downy mildew are not troublesome, there is no apparent reason to grow the new varieties.

Nemagreen seed will probably be in short supply for the next year or two. Thaxter will probably not be commercially available for at least another year.

DAMP CELLARS CAN BE AVOIDED

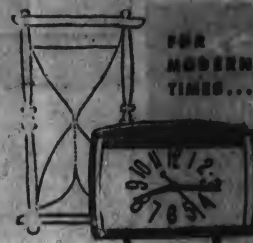

Damp cellars have long been a common bugaboo of home owners—but a few rules can help a home builder avoid the trouble.

The site should be moderately elevated so there is a fall in at least one direction. The soil and subsoil should be open and porous so that air and water, admitted readily. Good, deep, natural drainage will help. Do not choose a site until you have determined the source of the domestic water supply, its purity and amount. Be sure to locate a suitable plot of ground into which waste sewage and other foul water can be drained.

Common causes of dampness in cellar are: Land which is flat or sloped toward the cellar wall; absence of eaves, gutters, and down spouts, or failure to repair defective ones; ground water close to or higher than cellar bottom; sweating or condensation of atmospheric moisture on walls and floors; leaky plumbing and dense masses of vines, shrubbery, and trees.

To avoid dampness, proper water, use of drainage system to conduct the water away from the building. To avoid trouble from surface drainage, grade of downward slope away from the basement, use a water pump operated automatically by a float switch.

Grand Strategist of the Kilowatts

keeping power at your finger tips

He doesn't wear a general's star, this varco neighbor of yours. But every day he maneuvers a million and a half kilowatts in a ceaseless war against your enemies... heat... cold... toil... and darkness.

His System Control Room is a true GHQ. Into it pour reports from all over varco's three-state power network. And out of it go the orders that keep the kilowatts flowing where they're needed.

Somewhere, clouds darken the afternoon sky and 100,000 lights go on an hour early. A movingman records the sudden load. And a twist of the System Operator's wrist can send extra steam roaring into giant turbines 100 miles away! Or his weather teletype warns of a heat wave. And the System Operator alerts stand-by stations to fire up and be ready for the air-conditioning load.

Yes, even in an industry that's far advanced in automation, human responsibility remains all important. Your real power line is people! Over 5,000 varco people... proud to be helping you LIVE BETTER — ELECTRICALLY!
